JANUARY

Roatan, Honduras

Inclusions: Air, 7 nights, 4 star all-inclusive resort with airport transfers

Roatan is the largest and most developed of the Bay Islands. Long and thin (50km long but only 2 km to 4km wide), the island is a diving and snorkeling mecca – virtually its entire coastline is fringed by an astonishingly diverse coral reef teeming with tropical fish.

But there's much more to Roatan than its reef - exquisite white sand beaches like West Bay, a mountainous interior of pine-forested hills and the remote wild east of the island (once a key pirate hangout) beg to be explored.

Unsurprisingly this natural beauty hasn't been ignored by property developers and tour operators, and a slew of fancy resort hotels, a new shopping mall and cruise ship terminal have opened in recent years.

Brenda’s take – if you like Sun, Sand, Water & Lots of time to Relax – you will definitely - Enjoy your stay here!

OR

Cayo Largo, Cuba

End your day with a relaxing stroll along the Malecon, a waterfront boardwalk home to shops, restaurants, clubs and cafes.

Brenda’s take on this destination—like the DR? Why not try this area?

OR

Santa Lucia, Cuba

Inclusions: Air, 7 nights, 4 star all-inclusive resort with airport transfers

Santa Lucia, also known as Playa Santa Lucia, is located on Cuba's north coast in the center of the country.

It is in the waters of Santa Lucia and Cayo Sabinal that the North American writer Ernest Hemingway wrote the major part of his novel The Old Man and the Sea for which he obtained the Nobel Prize. It could just as well have been his autobiography. Hemingway also participated in the hunt for German sub-marines and ships that were prowling in the area. With his own yacht he helped sink two enemy boats.

It is in the streets of unique layout, the seigniorial large houses, plazas and churches, that was born Nicolas Guillen, the National Poet of Cuba. Of vital importance in the history of Spanish-American poetry, his longtime friend Garcia Lorca classified Guillen as the most important poet of the XXth century on the American continent.

Brenda’s take on this destination—lots of history here!
Cozumel, Mexico

Inclusions: Air, 7 nights, 4 star all-inclusive resort with airport transfers

Cozumel is Mexico's largest island nestled just 12 miles off the coast of the Yucatan Peninsula. Cozumel measures 28 miles long and 10 miles wide, and is world renowned for its dazzling white sandy beaches and the remarkable clarity of the multi-hued azure Caribbean ocean in which it rests. The climate is subtropical and the people native to Cozumel is of Mayan descent.

Cozumel itself was a sleepy little fishing community until 1961, when a Frenchman by the name of Jacques Cousteau declared it one of the most beautiful scuba diving areas of the world. Since that time Cozumel has become an underwater marine park to protect the delicate balance of its dazzling coral reefs and abundant variety of tropical fish. The underwater wildlife is absolutely amazing here and due to the clarity of the water (100 - 200 ft. visibility, depending on the season) you do not have to be a diver to enjoy it.

Brenda’s take on this destination – if you love snorkeling, you will love Cozumel!

Or

Havana, Cuba

Inclusions: Air, 7 nights, 4 star resort, breakfast daily with airport transfers

Come experience the Old City and all the history. La Habana Vieja, the old city, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1982, Old Havana is truly the tourist center of the city. Visitors here are plentiful, which is not surprising considering the impressive number of colonial buildings that are crammed into this part of the capital. Some of them are veritable jewels of the colonial baroque style.

This week will give you lots of time to take in the local entertainment, sightseeing and sample all the great Cuban cuisine. Why not try a new restaurant every night?

Brenda’s take on this destination – Cuba’s going to change a lot – experience it now!
LOS CABOS, MEXICO

This is a "must visit" spot on your Los Cabos vacation. This resort is one of Mexico's largest in terms of layout.

San Jose del Cabo and Cabo San Lucas anchor the area's resort strip. The two towns are connected by a 20-mile Corridor, home to a range of elegant hotels, a heavenly stretch of lovely beaches, and a collection of championship golf courses.

Brenda’s take on this destination – Why not take in some Whale Watching!

Or

LIBERIA, COSTA RICA

Inclusions: Air, 7 nights, 4 star all-inclusive resort with airport transfers

The town itself is steeped in history. For a while, it traded hands between Nicaragua and Costa Rica, and has all of the amenities that generally accompany a larger city. Most people, however, don't spend much time in the city and prefer to move on to the Pacific coast beaches or inland rainforests that are set nearby.

Head west and you'll hit the Pacific Ocean and a smattering of chilled-out beaches. There is Playa Hermosa, a quiet community that borders a calm section of ocean that’s great for swimming, or Ocotal, which is known for its outstanding sport fishing and superb scuba diving. Tamarindo is held in high esteem by many and for good reason - it has solid surfing, nice international restaurants, and a fun nightlife.

To the east of Liberia are mountains and rainforests, including the Rincón de la Vieja National Park. This park, some two hours from Liberia, has abundant forests and is threaded with hiking trails. Visitors to the park can ride horses, take mud baths, or swim beneath waterfalls—a great alternative to time spent along the sunny Guanacaste beaches.

Brenda’s take on this destination – You have to Zipline!

Brenda’s take on this destination – So much to experience!

Or

Varadero, Cuba

Inclusions: Air, 7 nights, 4 star all-inclusive resort with airport transfers

Varadero is known to be very safe places for travelers. It is strictly a tourist enclave, with limited access for locals, and routinely policed, whereas elsewhere in Cuba is much different. Beach Vendors are abundant on the beaches bracketing the resorts. Their "carts" are built up from a bicycle with many shelves and hooks to display their wares while easily rolling along the beach. Haggling is not as common in Cuba, but it can be done.

Enjoy the sights aboard the local open top double decker bus that runs the hotel strip to downtown daily, hop on hop off and shop for rum, cigars, coffee and jewelry. Rum is best purchased at the Casa de Ron - this shop has the best selection. Across the street from the Casa de Ron is the cigar shop.

The Mojito is Cuba's signature drink - Made with freshly crushed mint, lime juice and white rum it is a unique delicious flavor. Second to the Mojito is the Cuba Libre, a combination of rum, cola and lime juice.

Brenda’s take on this destination – If you like to walk nice beaches, here you go!!

Cayo Coco is an island in central Cuba, known for its all-inclusive resorts and pristine beaches. It lies within the Ciego de Ávila Province and is part of a chain of islands called Jardines del Rey ("the King's Gardens"). The cay is administered by the Morón municipality. It has a surface area of 370 km² and is named after the white ibis, locally called Coco (coconut) birds.

The causeway linking Cayo Coco to the mainland is 27 km (17 mi) long and runs across Perros Bay (Bahia de Perros). It was built in 16 months and 3 million cubic meters of stone were needed to build it. The construction caused concern among environmentalists as the causeway disturbed the tidal flow and thus the life-cycle of waterlife. Despite fears, wild flamingos still live in the shallow waters and can often be seen from the causeway although not as often as before the construction. A number of gaps were subsequently created in the causeway to restore water flow. Cayo Coco is linked by short causeways to Cayo Guillermo to the west and to Cayo Romano to the east.
