NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM:

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS:

Ted Nesse when you google him has a pink dress next to him (tried it did not find dress nor Ted). Ted and his wife Mona have son and a daughter. Ted likes to sail and is a ardent buyer of Volvos. The one he now owns has 290,000 miles on it. He is in the wireless device secretion business.

PROGRAM:

Washington County Sheriff William Hutton was introduced by Ted Nesse. Sheriff Hutton has been in law enforcement for 31 years.
He has been Sheriff since the election of 2006. He holds a masters degree from Univ. of St. Thomas.
He gave us some interesting statistics about the Washington County Sheriff's Department:

33 cities plus townships, the Sheriff has responsibility for the jail, we have 228 prisoners, 170 renters from other counties, #1 level crime is down 20% from 2007, #2 level down 20% as well. There is a slight uptick in 2014. The Sheriff is responsible for court security and they deliver civil judgements to people. Sheriff is required by statue for counties but police departments are not required.

Sheriff Hutton talked particularly about the drug scene in the county. Heroine is the problem and the fastest growing. It is taken by the 16-26 age group, tending more and more to be the middle class, Caucasian and is not your casual drug , it requires intravenous administration.
The other problem is synthetics made by amateur chemists. All of this can be traced to individuals getting hooked on prescriptions from ordinary medicine cabinets. Pain killers will all have but should get rid of once used.

The County has drop off centers to take your drugs to. In 2013 they collected 4368 lb.. Do this and it could save a life.
