CLUB BUSINESS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS: President Steve Madsen

Too bad I failed to get a picture of the jacket that Steve wore but safe to say someone in the audience said "I'll take two scoops please!"

Big thank you to Dave and Ann Langer for the summer picnic at their house last week.

Craig introduced his two guests, Jennifer who used to work at the athletic club across from Courage Center who is embarking on a career as a Real Estate Agent and Tomas who is the son of an exchange student that Craig hosted in 1982.

Mark Fisher introduced his guest Mitch who is a summer intern helping Ass. Eye Care deal with the long wait times.

The Rotary Twins game is now scheduled for August 22. Tickets may be found on the District Web Site above.

Jack Gibbons gave a pitch for new members this year and also promoted autographed copies of The Rotarian where Marge et. al. were featured in an article describing their work in Ghana. If you haven't read it or seen the pictures you must.

SERGEANTS AT ARMS: Bob Gray and Mel Sullivan

Bob noted that the Stillwater High School Touchdown Club has chosen Shari Clifford's daughter as the "Cowgirl who will lead the ponies onto the field before the games this season.

Jack donated $40 in recognition of his 40 years in Rotary.

Donations aplenty for Margie's appearance in the Rotarian.

Rich C. had the longest drive at the Young Life Golf tournament as witnessed by Bob looking for his ball in the woods.

Rick went to his 40th High School Reunion. He also played a round of golf with friends to commemorate Bob Foley who passed away a few years ago and ran our annual golf tournament in honor of Mary Jo Weingarten.

Dave Langer was able to sell his two tickets to the Paul McCartney concert.

Brent was updating our plaque for Perfect Attendance and Rich has reached 30 years while Jack has accumulated 38 years including other clubs.

Andy continues celebrating his daughters marriage and his rising from the subsequent poverty.

Dean recognized Roger R. for all his hard work on the Fishing Pier.

Arba-Della forgot her pin !!!!!!!!

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM:

District Governor, Karel Weigel will visit. Steve hopes to induct our new members while she is here - Steve Madsen

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS:

Susannah Torseth is a St. Olaf Grad and works for a local law firm. She lives in Stillwater with her husband Chris. She and Chris have 2 boys and a girl. She loves boating and singing which she developed as a part of the famous St. Olaf choir

PROGRAM:

Clyde Doeptner as the curator of the Twins (unique to the Twins) has so many interesting to talk about. Here are a few…..

All the balls thrown out of a ball game are kept, labeled and recorded. This is done by an authenticator. Also when ever their is a special event such as say Joe Nathan's first no hit game..Clyde asks for shoes, hat or baseball…whatever he can get.

Did you realize that baseball is the only game where the player scores a point not the ball, on offense the other team has the ball, and when a ball hits the foul pole it is in play?

Clyde's knowledge and memory are famous, and he often gets challenged. He loves to challenge back.

He started this all when he asked Calvin Griffith if he could have some of the things Cal had saved from baseball when the Twins moved out of Met Stadium. He found letters from several Presidents and their wives thanking for various events. The tradition for the Washington Senators, who were the team Calvin moved to the Twin Cities, was that the President threw out the first ball at the start of each year.

He is hoping to convince the Pohlad's to donate the Ford Bldg. across from Target field as a museum so he can exhibit his treasures.
