HIGHWAY CLEANUP 5/26/21: Chair Dana Delaware reported that the trash was light this time; they only filled five bags. Pictured are Dana Delaware, Marty Jayne and Annette Sweet. Sarah Delaware and Ron Brand, not pictured, also helped. Thank you, Rotarians and Sarah!

NEWS FROM ANNETTE SWEET ON RYLA: Our club will be sponsoring Ethan Powell from Adair Co R-2 (Brashear HS) to the MO Rotary Youth Leadership Academy (RYLA) in July. Ethan will be a sophomore in the fall, is active in a number of sports and clubs at his school and is interested in servant leadership. The 1000 Hills Club is sponsoring two additional students.

FLAG PROJECT: Jeff said we will have 165 flags for Flag Day!

DANA DELAWARE IS RECIPIENT OF 2021 FOUR WAY TEST AWARD!

Chair Janet Gooch (pictured with Dana) provided opening remarks before Randy Smith played a video on the history of the Four Way Test. Janet then recognized the past recipients (see attachment) of this award present today by asking them to stand. A second video - "Reflections on the Four Way Test" followed before the award was presented to Dana Delaware. In his acceptance remarks, he thanked us for this honor.

Dana joined the Rotary Club of Kirksville in June 2002, sponsored by Scott Ellis. Dana has chaired the Classification, Shoes for Orphan Souls, Helping Hands (Community Service), Four Way Test and Free Enterprise Award committees. He has been the faculty sponsor of Truman State's Rotaract Club. In his almost 20 years of membership, he has participated in the Chicken Q, Children's Literacy Project, Salvation Army Bell Ringing, Red Cross Bloodmobiles, Programming, Adopt-A-Highway Cleanup, Polio Plus, the current flag project and Food Drives for the Pantry for Adair County. Dana, a Paul Harris Fellow +3, is presently director of Community Service.

Dana was honored with a standing ovation. Janet Gooch provided closing remarks and President Roy Noe expressed his appreciation for the help Dana has provided him this year. A third video was played - "Song of the Four Way Test" before Dana led us in reciting the Four Way Test. Congratulations, Dana!

50-50 Drawing: Jeff Romine did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $505.
