ANNOUNCEMENTS, REPORTS - President Mark Fisher:

Mark lead a much abbreviated business meeting since the time was focused on our guests. He explained our club plus Rotary in General. This was an award meeting and most of the time was focused on that. However the report of Bill Miller about the Brewer's Bazaar was a must. '

Bill said we had 700 people attend, all the brewers showed up, the support of the entire club was wonderful, the day of, the planning ahead etc…see attached pictures to see it all. The traffic was a problem and one additional reason was the Mud Run in Somerset. Jeff and Ken Mc. were especially important that day. The only negative they heard was "How come you don't have Vegetarian Bratwurst?" Great job… pictures on the next page.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS

In order to get to know better our members, the previous weeks host provides a semi-biographical introduction of the host for this week's program. We skipped this today.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS - Rick Robbins:

This is National Smile Month.

Jon Stillman gave an update on Polio eradication: 153 new cases at this time last year, 55 this year. Progress.

Rick's quote of the day:" Voices in your head may not be real but you should listen to them anyway".

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Mark Lambert's Program

PROGRAM

Mark explained the STRIVE program, what it is all about, the mentors who were wearing red roses and the 26 wonderful students who participated this year. Our biggest class ever, Congratulations for attending and Congratulations to those who were rewarded for their efforts.

Valerie Fisher, the Rotary Chair of the event gave out the awards. The first award went to those who had perfect attendance. They received $250 scholarships. They were Neal Gillett, Chauncey Heintz, Kyuler Kammuieller, Madeline Knoll, Kaitlin Lahr, Zachary Larson, Megan Malon, Jessica Meister, Ashton Oliveira, Taylor Schmall, Matthew Steely and Kelsey Stevens.

Next award was presented to those who had the highest GPA (Zachary Larson $750) and the top award went to the most improved GPA (Kyler Kammeuiller, $1500)

And finally a picture of all the Students who attended that attended.
