CLUB BUSINESS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS: President Steve Madsen

Janis Donnelly was recognized for reaching her 4th Paul Harris Award.

Steve noted that the building of the McKusick Lake Fishing Pier is taking place this week. Every morning at 9:30 they are out there working and could use your help.

Steve passed around a thank you letter from the Senior Class at the High School and a picture of the passing of the Rotary gavel in the local papers.

SERGEANTS AT ARMS: Bob Gray and Mel Sullivan

It was Bob Gray's turn. Bob conjured up the story about Steve's acronyms he using in rotary like hitting the project out of the park, or Holy Cow etc… and figured it out why sitting next to him at the Home Run Derby at the All-Star celebration.

How about the saying "Tinkers to Evers to Chance ?
(Double play combination from Chicago Cubs 1912).

Ned is celebrating 53 years of marriage and offered sympathy to Andy who hopefully will recover soon after funding his daughter's wedding.

Many joined in supporting Andy.

Ute donated in memory of Germany winning the World Cup of Soccer

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM:

Clyde Doepner, Curator for Minnesota Twins. It is an unusual role and Susannah says it will be very interesting.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR MEMBERS:

PROGRAM:

Cheryl Carrigan, our original speaker was unable to attend, she got into an auto accident on the way to our meeting. Leanne Woodland from Canvas Health very ably stood in for her.

Canvas Health has a number of programs and the emphasis on treating the whole person, body and soul and mind. Here in Washington County Canvas Health has these programs.
1.Abuse Response Systems
They have a mobile crisis team that takes the victim out of an abuse situation and gets them to treatment. Their work also involves training and teaching in the School district about bullying.

2. Early Childhood Behavioral Existence
These behavior problems in your children usually come from dysfunctional households. It is interesting to note that the highest rate of expulsion in our schools comes before 3rd grade.

3. Text for Life
a way of those people crying for help or contemplating suicide text for help, something better suited to this modern age. It is interesting the veterans are increasingly using this.

4. Homeless Youth

More prevalent then we realize. Their new initiative is to find foster homes for these youth.

Joke of the Week

9 Months Later...
Jack decided to go skiing with his buddy, Jerry.
So they loaded up Jack's minivan and headed north.
After driving for a few hours, they got caught in a terrible blizzard.
They pulled into a nearby farm and asked the attractive lady who answered the door if they could spend the night.
'I realize it?s terrible weather out there and I have this huge house all to myself, but I'm recently widowed,' she explained. 'I'm afraid the neighbors will talk if I let you stay in my house.'
'Don't worry,' Jack said. 'We'll be happy to sleep in the barn, and if the weather breaks, we'll be gone at first light. 'The lady agreed, and the two men found their way to the barn and settled in for the night.
Come morning, the weather had cleared, and they got on their way.
They enjoyed a great weekend of skiing.
But about nine months later, Jack got an unexpected letter from an attorney.
It took him a few minutes to figure it out, but he finally determined that it was from the attorney of that attractive widow he had met on the ski weekend.
> He dropped in on his friend Jerry and asked, ?Jerry, do you remember that good-looking widow from the farm we stayed at on our ski holiday up north about 9 months ago?'

'Yes, I do.' said Jerry
'Did you, errr, happen to get up in the middle of the night, go up to the house and pay her a visit?'
'Well, um, yes!, Jerry said, a little embarrassed about being found out, 'I have to admit that I did.'
'And did you happen to give her my name instead of telling her your name?'
Jerry's face turned beet red and he said, 'Yeah, look, I'm sorry, buddy, I'm afraid I did.' 'Why do you ask?'
'She just died and left me everything.'
And you thought the ending would be different, didn't you?... You know you smiled...now keep that smile for the rest of the day!
