Club Announcements

by Sterk, Jane

Update on Mark Massullo: John Heraghty reported that Mark is still on "Mat" leave (to laughter) from the club but he continues to process the credit cards and participated in adjudications.

Christmas Cakes: Ann Moskow thanked people for selling the cakes and made special recognition of Natasha who bought 22 cakes and said she would buy 10 more if they didn't sell. There are 2 large darks and 9 light cakes left. There will be no cakes to auction at the Christmas breakfast. Those who bought dark cakes were to pick them up on Saturday or Sunday between 10 and 2 this weekend or next. Light cakes can be picked up after 11 on Sunday. If you can't make it during these times, arrange a time with Ann.

Piper's Auction

by Sterk, Jane

President Paul invited Doug Lunam and Wayne Ford to take the podium to conduct November's "Piper's Auction."

The Club auctioned 10 $100 lots. The current exchange rate is .99. Doug said he had $3,000 in commitments including from Judd Buchanan from Columbia South America.

Doug Lunam reports that the Piper's Auction and the Campaign for The Rotary Foundation resulted in a cheque in the amount of $11,143 being sent to The Rotary Foundation. Thanks to the generous giving by the many members of the club.

Auctioneer Wayne Ford started the bidding at $300.

The following members bid on the ten auction items:

Andrew Bekes - $500; Mike Koessler - $550; Paul Doherty - $600; Don Greenberg - $575; John Heraghty - $550; Wayne Ford - $550;

Jeff Moses - $550; Larry Sims - $500; Steve Holland - $500; Robin Cushing - $550

The Sarge

by Sterk, Jane

Dennis Truss was "the Sarge"

Rob Simons and Natasha Crawford were fined for being late.

Lloyd Houghton - was fined for the story about the tie. Lloyd said he had lots of generous offers.

George Prince - for being early

Lauren Moline - for her new job - glad to pay again!

Gillian Manson and Peng Heng - for enjoying Dennis' cashmere sweater.

Mike Koessler - only male at the table. Table had to decide if Mike should pay or the women - the women chose to pay.

Dennis introduced the theme for today's Sarge - what happened on November 21 over time - most tables paid fines for failing the test

Cheryl's table - Nov 21, 2010 - what did PM of Iran do? - made announcement that girls could marry at 16 to increase the population.

Nov 21, 2010 - Who won 5th consecutive NASCAR title? Jimmy Johnson - table paid.

Nov 21, 1995 - for investors - Richard Burke's table - 1st time the DOW closed over $500

1990 - corner table - who sentenced to 10 years for security violations - close enough - Milken

1989 - GHW Bush - made an announcement that makes air travel more comfortable - banned smoking on planes

1987 - famous couple married - Demi Moore and Bruce Willis

1980 - popular television show - who shot JR - on Dallas - got the answer

1980 - John Lennon and Yoko Ono - posed nude for photographs

1977 - air transportation - first flight of the Concord - Eric Pettit got this right

1977 - Eddie Murray - baseball American League rookie - hall of fame - didn't get the question - Tom Martin got it right

1971 - NY Rangers - set record for goals scored in one period - Tom guessed 7 - it was actually 8

Happy and Sad

by Sterk, Jane

Natasha Crawford - happy that Chris Dysart bought Browns the Florist in 1977 and for the kindness of Rotarians. Chris Causton drove to Sidney to tell why the Business Improvement Area (BIA) has worked well in Oak Bay.

John Heraghty - sad Wayne Ford doesn't like auctions

Dennis Sutton - sold house and moving the end of January. Got within 2% of asking price.

Cheryl Thomas - Kudos to Air Canada for getting plane here under stressful conditions.

Vicky Grabb raising money by selling poinsetta. Will stay after to take orders.

Jeff Moses got $100 from a couple who were supposed to go to Crab Fest. Donated the money to the Harbourside Foundation so they can get a tax receipt.

Ann Moskow - shared a story about cakes - Cliff Whitfield took one to Orillia Ontario. Gave it to the Cambridge Club. Someone met someone at yoga and ordered a cake. (The story made sense when Ann told it - the deficiencies are the bulletin editor's)

Doug Lunam - reported that raised about $9,000 for The Rotary Foundation

Paul Doherty - went grad dress shopping with his daughter and had lots of fun

Jack Jeffrey - there was an Obituary in MacLeans in honour of Gareth Coombs. They called him an adrenalin junkie but that was not really true. He was just using a frequent short cut use by students going to Queens.

Dennis Truss - had a week in Vegas with his wife who didn't really want to go but she enjoyed herself and they plan to go back.
