ROTARY NEWS AT NOON SPONSOR

Our sponsor today is Mike Green of Green and Green. He practices law full time with his partner and son Ben at 227 3rd Avenue. They provide good service at affordable prices.
He enjoys time with his grandchildren, Margaret 6, Benjamin 4, Benjamin 2 and Anna 9 mos.
He plays golf (badly) once a week, with the same group for thirty years.
Once in a while he gets to go fly fishing with friends, a hobby that started 65 years ago when he grew up in Northern Maine.
Mike says, "Estate planning, business and real estate transactions are what we do. Need a trust or corporation set up? We're your guys." Thanks Mike

Jessica Van Arsdale and Dan Herst, co owners of San Diego Urban Timber in Chula Vista shared their story. They take wood that is being removed from city property and make objects like furniture and furnishings. They are working on expanding their 12 year old business and encouraging cottage industry in our city in wood working. They have been featured in the National Geographic TV show and an article in the Union Tribune. 80% of the wood they use is eucalyptus. They have over 750 logs in their inventory on Industrial Blvd.

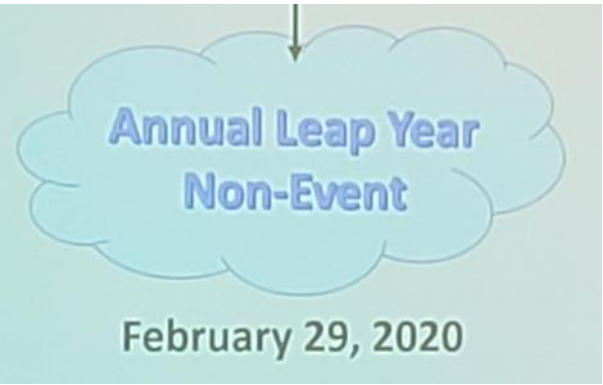
Congratulations and thanks for your Rotary service!!

Richard Brocchini, our resident firefighter related his experience in going to fight the fire in Santa Clara recently. He was a member of an Incident Management Team. He did the Public Information Officer work so that the public received clear and coordinated messages on the progress of the fire and the damage that was done. There was over 77,000 acres burned and 200,000 people evacuated without a single loss of life. A fact for which they are justifiably very proud.
Thank you for your service, Rich.



President Bob announced a non-event in honor of leap year.
Darned if we know what he is talking about!

Past President,and Assistant District Governor Dave Hoffman asked if the club would want to respond to an appeal from South Bay Community Services to sponsor some very needy children for the holidays. There was overwhelming support!

Mark Scott announced we will be assembling 150 bikes at our annual event on December 5. Thanks to Greg Cox and the County Supervisors for the $7,000 grant to support this great project!
