

72nd POWELL RIVER FESTIVAL OF THE PERFORMING ARTS 2016

PIANO

Lorraine Min

Steinway Artist and critically acclaimed Canadian pianist Lorraine Min has dazzled audiences with her poetic artistry and dynamic virtuosity. Cited by the New York Times for her “impeccable phrase-shaping (and) crystalline sound,” and by the Washington Post for her “admirable technique,” Min has performed extensively on five continents and in some of the world’s most important concert halls such as New York’s Avery Fisher Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Town Hall, Carnegie’s Weill

Recital Hall, Merkin Hall, the Kennedy Center in Washington, DC, and at the Ravinia and Tanglewood Summer Festivals.

Min was the highest ranking Canadian in the Leeds and the Busoni International and laureate in the Van Cliburn competitions. Top prizes include the Washington International, D’Angelo, Frina Awerbuch, and the William Kapell Competitions. On full scholarship, Min received her Bachelor degree (Pi Kappa Lambda) from Peabody Conservatory.

On generous scholarships and Canada Council grants, she received her Masters and Doctoral degrees from the Juilliard School. She has been a full time professor of piano at Mercyhurst College (US), Western Washington University (US) and Dalhousie University.

BAND AND INSTRUMENTAL

Alan Matheson

Alan Matheson is a Vancouver-based pianist, trumpeter, composer and arranger. He teaches at the music departments of the University of British Columbia and Vancouver Community College where he is an instructor in jazz piano and trumpet, and at the Vancouver Symphony School of Music where he lectures in jazz history. He is a graduate of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois and studied with Vincent Cichowicz. Alan has also studied with Barbara Butler, Joe Newman and Clark Terry. Alan also leads his own big band, nonet, septet and trio and has written arrangements for jazz legends Clark Terry and Bud Shank. As well, Alan has conducted big band tributes to Duke Ellington, Paul Whiteman and Louis Armstrong. He has also performed with the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, Louis Bellson and Phil Woods.

Julia Nolan (saxophone), Sal Ferreras (percussion) David Palmer (pipe organ) and Martin Hackelman (horn) have performed Alan's compositions. Tulane University Jazz Ensemble and Northwestern University Jazz Ensemble have performed his arrangements for big band.

Alan's first CD "Intrada" was released in 2004 and his newest CDs "Duetti" and "Summer Evening" (recorded in Finland with bassist Wade Mikkola) were released in 2013 and 2015 respectively.

VOCAL and CHORAL

Lambroula Maria Pappas

Acclaimed for her charisma and exquisite tone, soprano Lambroula Maria Pappas has impressed and delighted audiences around the world. She possesses an extraordinary blend of shimmering voice, powerful stage presence and sparkling lyricism.

As a soloist, Ms. Pappas has sung with symphony orchestras and opera companies across Canada with highlights that include the likes of the Vancouver, Montreal and Victoria Orchestras; London, Quebec and Saskatoon symphonies; Pacific Opera Victoria, Montreal Opera, Saskatoon Opera and numerous festivals. Internationally she has appeared with Switzerland's Stadttheater Bern, Germany's East West Symphony, Belgium's Opera de Wallonie, France's Opera d'Avignon, Spain's Delegada Orquesta Sinfonica de Madrid, Northwest Sinfonetta, Spokane Opera and New York's Lincoln Centre at Alice Tully Hall.

This mother of two young children balances her busy performing career, teaching and adjudicating. Ms. Pappas is part of the art song/recital collaboration of Duo Mythos, and is lead singer of the Celtic/Medieval band Caelestra. Ms. Pappas has made several CD recordings and has appeared on many television and radio programs including CBC, Bravo and NPR.

Ms. Pappas' students have received many awards, trophies and festival representations at music festivals, honours and distinctions on Royal Conservatory of Music Exams and have gone on to earn University music degrees. Ms. Pappas has a Bachelor and Masters of Music from the University of British Columbia and is head of the vocal department of the British Columbia Conservatory of Music, teaches at Place des Arts, privately from her own studio, and is a Founding Faculty Artist of the Vancouver International Song Institute (VISI).

Heilwig von Koenigsloew

Born in Hamburg, Germany, Heilwig began her studies at the Musikhochschule in Hamburg. As a young musician she moved to Canada and was a student of Thomas Rolston at the University of Alberta where she received her Masters of Music degree in violin performance at the age of 22. She has also studied with Lorand Fenyves, Steven Staryk and the Hungarian String Quartet. Heilwig served as Department Head of the music program at Malaspina University College in Nanaimo, BC from 1976 to 1984 while maintaining an active career as a private teacher at the Nanaimo Conservatory and the Vancouver Academy. Currently she is a professor of violin at Trinity Western University and a violin teacher and chamber music instructor in the Langley Area. She was a member of the CBC Radio Orchestra until its demise, still plays with the Vancouver Opera Orchestra and works as a free-lance violinist/ violist in the Lower Mainland area. She is on the board of the Fraser Valley Kiwanis Music Festival and is serving as president of Performing Arts BC. Heilwig is a resident of Langley, BC and lives on a 15 acre hay farm with her children, grandchildren, horses, donkey, dogs, cats, and other diverse animals.

SPEECH ARTS

Sydney Sengotta has been performing on stage in plays, operas, musicals and festivals for over 20 years. Originally from Vernon, he first trained with Tony Stamboulieh, The Moore's, Elizabeth Scott and was featured in performances such as Godspell, La Boheme, Cabaret, The Mighty Casey, The Tempest, Pajama Game and many others.

Sydney received his Diploma of Performing Arts from Canadian College of Performing Arts. During that time he also worked with The Royal Theatre in Barkerville travelling across BC with their Motherlode Tour. He performed in Kamloops in association with the Rocky Mountain Railtour. Other notable performances during this time include Rumours, 7 Stories and A Class Act.

Now residing in Vancouver, Sydney is currently teaching at the Bolton Academy of Spoken Arts. He obtained his ACTL Diploma in Performing Speech and Drama from the Trinity College of London. In addition, he has adjudicated many festivals including West Coast Festival of Performing Arts.

Sydney continues to grow each year while taking classes, performing and traveling. He is thrilled to be a part of the Powell River 2016 Festival, and would like to congratulate all the performers on their performances.

DANCE

Andrea Gunnlaugson Furlan

Growing up in Manitoba, Andrea trained with the Brandon Dance Ensemble under Barbara Ehnes before auditioning for and moving to professional training with the Royal Winnipeg Ballet School at 16. She made her professional debut in Rigoletto with the Manitoba Opera Association in 1988 and then Swan Lake with the Royal Winnipeg Ballet Company in 1989 in Vancouver. Andrea trained with the RWB until 1991 then continued her professional training and graduated from Winnipeg's School of Contemporary Dancers before moving to Vancouver in 1993.

Over a 20 year professional career, she has had the honor of working with some of the most prominent BC and Canadian choreographers and dance companies; training and performing with the likes of DanceCorps, DanStabat, Lola Dance, Katherine Labelle, Peter Bingham, Machine Noisey, Battery Opera, Winnipeg Contemporary Dancers, Nicole Mion, Deborah Dunn, Jai Govinda Dance, Mascall Dance and Wild Excursions Performance Society to name a few; travelling across Canada, Tours to Germany and the the Croatian Dance festival and in 2006 performing with Holy Body Tattoo in LA in 'Monumental' - a wild ride of a career, ending in an injury that ceased all performance in 2006/07.

Since retiring as a performer, Andrea has focused on adjudicating festivals across Canada and teaching workshops and master classes. She was appointed Regional Program Officer of the DTRC-BC in 2004, running the BC office until 2012 and coordinating workshops and educational seminars for emerging and professional dancers. Focusing on assisting the dance community politically and spiritually, a tremendously rewarding position. Andrea is a founding member of CADA-BC, Made in BC- Dance on Tour and the '605 Collective'. She remains active as a board member of the '605' and most recently joined the Frank Venebles Theatre board in Oliver, BC.

Andrea is thrilled to have the opportunity to share her passion, love and expertise with the festival. She wishes all participants the best of luck and most importantly, the most fun and positive energy possible!
