

AND THE WINNERS ARE!

Rotary Club of Squamish

2007/2008 District

Rotary Club of the Year

Once again the Squamish community ends up a winner with over $14,000 being raised for the "Linda Carney Rotary Cares Celebrity Challenge". Big thanks to the 25 riders who participated in the race and also Joan McIntyre our MLA for West Vancouver-Sea to Sky who was there to hand out prizes.

The riders left Brennan Park at 11:03

FIRST PLACE WINNERS: Patrick Mc Eachran and Trevor Halverson crossed the finish line at 11:20:15 on a tandem bike

FIRST FEMALE: Anna Santos only 30 seconds later from the Squamish CAN group

YOUNGEST PARTICIPANT: Alex Cairns who raised over $1900

OLDEST RIDER: Rotarian Bruce Lebans

MOST MONEY RAISED: Owen Carney with $2450

MOST CREATIVE WAY TO COVER THE DISTANCE: Toni Kercjes on a pony

Neal Kindree rode the "Test of Metal" while raising money for the "Linda Carney Fund" through a 50/50 on line "guess his time"; $800 was the total pot and Sabina Fooat won the pot being closest to the 2:47:25. This was the time Neal had as he finished the Test of Metal in 9th place.

Big thanks to the sponsors who generously donated prizes:

The Riders in the Linda Carney Rotary Cares Celebrity Challenge

Alex Cairns Youngest Rider prize presented by Joan McIntyre MLA

Nesters, Save on Food, London Drugs, Starbucks, Special FX Hair Design and Esthetics, Howe Sound Inn, Callaghan Winter Sports Club, Greg Gardner Motors

Riders, Sponsors, Volunteers! A great community effort for a worthwhile cause!

Thanks from Squamish Rotary

This ad is sponsored by

