Mr. Trimble has received many honors as an historian, writer, and performer. His awards and accolades have been many from The Daughters of the American Revolution awarding him their "Medal of Honor" for leadership and patriotism, to being inducted into the Scottsdale Hall of Fame and the Arizona Veteran's Hall of Fame.

Max's Message

Making new members feel welcome at the Rotary Club of Scottsdale is the key to keeping them as members. The Club is responding well to our goal of bringing in new members. But another Club goal is to help new members rapidly begin enjoying their Rotary experience.

Last week, one of our visitors told me after the meeting, "He had never visited such a friendly Club as yours." The greeters gave him a warm welcome as he entered the room. He enjoyed his conversation at the table and he enjoyed the comradery during the meeting.

Most of our new members have already become engaged in a Club activity. Many attend the 5th Avenue Gathering. And, of course, all are working to get their "Blue Badge." These all help them get into the spirit of being a Rotarian. But each of us is the key to making our Club a friendly Club.

Everyone can help by giving all our new members and guests a warm greeting when you see them.

President Max
