Today

Our speaker today is Mark Mitchell, Mayor of Tempe. He is a third-generation Arizonan with deep roots in the Tempe community. Before being elected Mayor in May, 2012, Mitchell was elected to the City Council in March of 2000 and served three four-year terms.

Mayor Mitchell is a native of Tempe, attending elementary and middle school in the community before graduating from McClintock High School. He also earned a Political Science degree from Arizona State University and has spent a number of years dedicated to a small business in Tempe. Mitchell is currently the Vice President of Arizona Flooring and Interiors.

Max's Message

With a goal to add one or two qualified new members a month, during the Paul Harris Day meetings members discussed how we might achieve it. Here are some of the comments from fellow members:

- It is an honor to be a Rotarian, not everyone may be a prospective member.
- Most members join Rotary as a result of current members having introduced Rotary to them and inviting them to join.
- Our members need to spread the word about Rotary – this is the best way to get quality new members.
- We need qualified members from a variety of demographics – diversity is desired.
- Members should arrange meetings with other professional organizations to explain Rotary.
- Continue Guest Days quarterly
- Guest Day should not be seen as a “free lunch,” but a day to introduce Rotary to prospective members.
- Continue to promote Corporate Memberships.

I hope you attended your Paul Harris Day gathering, got to know some fellow Rotarians better, and added your voice to the discussion.

President Max

Golf Tournament – Evening Meeting, Dinner & Silent Auction

Our regular meeting on October 5th is an evening meeting being held in concert with our Annual Golf Tournament Dinner & Silent Auction at the McCormick Ranch Golf Club. We need confirmation of your attendance and number of guests. For those of you who are golfing, but are not planning to stay for the dinner, please let us know, too. RSVP (répondez s'il vous plaît) to Patti. She can be reached in person at our meetings, via email at administrator@scottsdalerotary.org, and even by phone!

Golf Tournament – Golfers & Silent Auction Items

It is not too late to participate. Silent auction items as well as golfers are needed for our Annual Golf Tournament held this year on October 5th – in 1 week! Entry forms are being accepted. The golf entry form, online form, flyer, and much more are available at <http://scottsdalerotary.org/SitePage/golf-tournament>. We have multiple ways for you to sign up for our biggest fund raiser of the year – from paper to digital entry forms, or even word of mouth. Note: Contact Patti Miller directly if you choose to confirm verbally.

Please contact Paula Dudley or Ken Brown with any tee sign purchases, silent auction items, and any questions you may have about assisting with our Annual Golf Tournament.

Thank You

- A special thank you goes to all of the members who hosted our Paul Harris Day last week. Those special meetings could not happen without your generosity.
- Since the beginning of September, Dr. Honora Norton has submitted five different press releases to local publications promoting our Club. Thank you for getting the word out!

Rotary Youth Exchange (RYE) - Applications Due

September 30th is the application deadline for students interested in participating in the 2016-17 RYE year abroad. It is not too late. Please contact Claudia Arnold-Sawaf if you are interested in helping with this awesome program or know of a deserving student.
