Introduction of Guests: Wayne Knudson
Introduction of Speaker: Rachel Sacco

Invocation & Pledge: Adam Eggebrecht
Sergeant-at-Arms: Kevin Bollinger

Today

Our speaker today is Mayor Michael Collins from the Town of Paradise Valley. He is owner and CEO of an aerospace and defense business with 45 employees in 5 states. Mayor Collins has Graduate and Doctoral Degrees from Arizona State University in Environmental Planning and Design as well as a Bachelor of Science in Policy, Planning & Development from the University of Southern California. He is also a Navy Veteran.

From 2007-2014, Mayor Collins also served the Town of Paradise Valley as Planning Commissioner, Council Member, and Vice Mayor. He has been a member of several committees including the the 2013 Town of Paradise Valley Public Safety Task Force and the General Plan Advisory Committee.

Max's Message: Did You Know?

Art and Mary DeCabooter started our 15 year tradition of having our speakers autograph a book and the Club donating it to Yavapai Elementary School. Thanks Art and Mary!

Sandy Miller and I had the honor of taking about 20 newly signed books to Yavapai, and meeting the principal and librarian. The library now has an outstanding collection of books signed by some famous people, thanks to our Club. The librarian uses them as a teaching tool, asking students to use the school computer and go online to research the people who signed the books. As with all books, the students are able to check them out.

Eight-eight percent (88%) of their students qualify for free lunch programs of the federal government (low income parents). The student population is about 60% Hispanic. The next largest ethnic group is Caucasian, followed by Native American, then African American, and the smallest group is Asian. It is a very diverse student population.

Scottsdale Rotarians can be proud of their support of the Youth of Scottsdale.

Thank you all so much for your support and belief in me, this truly would not be possible without you! I promise to represent our Club to the best of my ability and I look forward to sharing about all of my experiences. Merci Beaucoup!!" -Annie*
