Proceeds from the Charity Golf Classic will benefit Third Street Alliance for Women and Children, a non-profit agency located in downtown Easton, Pennsylvania. Third Street Alliance operates in a historic mansion and offers a variety of vital services to the community:

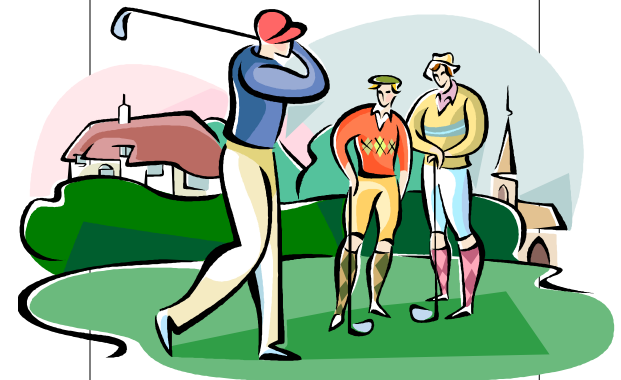

- Shelter for women in crisis and their children
- The Learning Center accredited child care
- Sharing the Caring adult day services
- Wellness classes for everyone of all ages
- Rental of gym and historic rooms for special events

To learn more about Third Street Alliance, visit www.thirdstreetalliance.org or call the agency at (610) 258-6271.

The mission of Third Street Alliance for Women and Children is to improve the quality of life for members of the community, with special emphasis on women and children. In support of this, we provide services to meet the basic needs of individuals and families and provide tools to promote personal development, responsibility and citizenship.
