PP Jack Rae and WHHDOG
 by Kleeberger, Bruce

At our 19 August meeting Past President Jack Rae of the Rotary Club of White Rock informed the Club about the Water Health Hunger District Operating Group (WHHDOG)

Dr. Don Anderson, of the Rotary Club of Everett chairs this committee which was organized to coordinate the efforts of various clubs in order that they can be more effective with their resources. The organization has considerable experience with water projects around the world.

Jack described several projects which had been successfully undertaken, some which had met considerable challenges and others which had been less effective. He is also involved, as chair for the Help for Haiti Consortium
