At the regular Club meeting of 28 April, Dr. Bruce and Silvia Kleeberger, reported to the club their experiences while in Guatemala for the month of Mar. They attended as recipients of a Vocational Services Grant sponsored by our C and the Rotary Club of Guatemala de la Anuncion (as host club partner)

Bruce and Silvia provided dental services in a "base" clinic and mobile clinic for March, seeing over 350 patients and performing over 750 procedures.

The Base Clinic is located at a Roman Catholic Parish centre and a 4x4 truck is the team and equipment for up to 3 hours, one way, from the Parish. Using ph experiences Bruce and Silvia demonstrated the living conditions of the Mayan i Examples of some of the treatment services was shown to the 45 Rotarians an sensitive to the fact that dinner was yet to be served!

President Lyle, for the benefit of the guests in attendance described the obje successes our club has had in its first year of foundation. He then called upon , "Mom" Flessner to present a Paul Harris Fellowship and Paul Harris Society P Dejardins, PHF

Sergeant-At-Arms Dennis, being squeezed for time to be as effective as he set upon to fleece the large flock in attendance, was unhesitatingly ruthless wi

Jun 9 2009	Rotary membership is a privilege. And if we look at it that way, we will w privilege with others. We find that members all too often think it is someo find new members. However, a special Rotarian honoured each one of us l club and we all have the duty to do the same.
Installation Night Jun 12 2009	As Rotarians, we carry the blazing torch of service, a component so sadly selfish and materialistic world.
Rotary International Convention Jun 21 2009 - Jun 24 2009	In every district of our Rotary world, hundreds of people are waiting for sc hope. So long as there is one hungry child, one ignorant person, one discot long as there is misunderstanding or conflict anywhere; so long as there is has not yet been found, there is a reason for Rotary."

New TRF CANADA Web Site

by Kleeberger, Bruce

The Rotary Foundation Canada is excited to announce the launch of its new website. The site has the same online donation feature but offers a more focused experience on what Rotarians in Canada have as a change in the web address. It is still: www.TRFCanada.org.

The main features of the new site are:

1. Secure online credit card donations
2. News on The Rotary Foundation of interest to Canadian Rotarians
3. Information on a variety of opportunities to support our Foundation
4. Contact information for TRF Canada
5. Links to TRF forms and reports - where possible in English and French
6. Information on the board of directors of TRF Canada
7. Links to districts with Canadian Rotary clubs
8. Contact information for the Regional Rotary Foundation Coordinators see Rotary clubs and districts.

The new website provides enhanced access to Rotary Foundation information in a clearer structure and simplified navigation. The improved functions make finding Foundation information easier.
