LAST MEETING: 8/03/11

By John Chamberlin

Our meeting opened with great enthusiasm with Kelli Robbins providing the invocation and Richard Dixon leading us in the Pledge of Allegiance and the song, “You’ve Got a Friend” with accompaniment from Chaya Sarah Dlinn. About the singing...well, let’s just say we’re REALLY good at the Pledge of Allegiance...’nuff said! But it’s all in good fun.

One note from Carole Horowitz: The Batman movie will be filming in the Grant Street area next week and the Mellon Lot will be closed. Author’s note, for these few weeks, no matter what happens in your Pittsburgh life, “blame it on Batman!” Running late to a meeting? Blame it on Batman. Want to call off from work? Blame it on Batman! Don’t feel like cooking dinner? Blame it on, well, you get it!

President Andy Dlinn gave his update including, reminding everyone to update their personal information in you online profile. He also reminded everyone that invoices for the new Rotary year had been mailed out and asked that they be paid in a timely manner.

Secretary Margaret DeLeeuw then provided a few comments on an article from the August Rotarian magazine. The story is about a gentleman who took all of the money from his retirement fund and went back to his childhood home in Romania in 2004. While there, he helped to obtain financing to build a school for the underprivileged kids in his birth town. Some local Rotary clubs assisted with the financing. He returned home to California, he became a Rotarian given his experience with Rotary in Romania. The story goes on to highlight his further activities in Romania.

NEXT MEETING

Date: August 10, 2011
Speaker: Jeff Martin
Title: NCAA Football Official
Topic: My Secret Life as an NCAA Football Official

President Andy reminded everyone about the “outreach” event on August 29th. It will feature motivational speaker, Kivi Bernhard. Please feel free to invite prospective members and their business associates.

Karl Ohrman reminded everyone that Rotary is supporting the Pittsburgh Business Ethics Award. Please take a moment and nominate a company that you believe meets the criteria.

Ethan Nicholas then introduced our speaker, Noah Cohen, President and CEO of Premier Innovations Group. Mr. Cohen spoke about how to achieve happiness in corporate success. “Is my life where I want it to be?” A few notes from Mr. Cohen’s presentation:

- He started selling Cutco Knives at age 17
- When you are doing something you love, that passion drives you. He loved selling Cutco Knives.
- He became a sales manager making $30-40K in one summer before he was 19 years old.
- He ran a Cutco District Office while in college
- After having some failure, he was reminded that he needed to appreciate his family and friends
- He started an advertising agency in Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia as well as the West Coast. It was the first time he ran a company. He sold it, after many learning curves, at age 24.
- He eventually started 3 companies at the same time. His main focus is now a spirits import company which currently has a federal importers license – which is extremely difficult to obtain
- His closing remarks were, do not say, “one day,” whatever it is, do it today. Don’t procrastinate.
- Make small changes toward success – start today and make steps every day after

The meeting was called to a close at 1:35pm.

It's a Great Day for Rotary!
