LAST MEETING: 11/28/12

By: Lexie Wukich

A “Club Assembly” was held at this week’s Rotary Meeting and it was a very inspiring meeting very fitting to follow the Thanksgiving holiday as we remembered our past service, expressed gratitude for our present service and planned for our future service.

David Gilpatrick provided a moving eulogy for Cal Stuckeman, who served our Club for sixty years. Ron Garrett offered the invocation and ELLS Bowser led us in the pledge and the singing “Winter Wonderland” accompanied by Jim Hall on the piano.

President Ray Amelio opened the meeting and immediately recognized the following members for their recent service and support: Mike Smith for hosting the “meager meal,” Mike Smith, Linda Clautti and the Chuck Tanner Committee, and Cherie Moshier, Phyllis Comer, Barbara Johnson, Ed Nazareth, Alan McIvor, Andy Dlinn, Richard Dixon and Marc Haney for volunteering at the New Citizens Reception. President Ray Amelio then went on to remind us of the upcoming holiday party on December 10th at LeMont Restaurant.

Al Wells provided an update on Richard Dixon who doing well and on the road to recovery after knee surgery. More good news from the floor from President Ray Amelio who congratulated Linda Fisher on her engagement, while Karl Ohrman and Lou Walsh celebrated forty-nine and fifty-three years of marriage, respectively, and P.K. Weston’s newest addition to the family – a puppy-mill rescue – began to show the first signs of comfort and trust.

Kirk Chambers gave the club updates, welcoming our guest, announcing club anniversaries and thanking the following for their club service: Mark Uebele, Dick Hodgdon, Terry Dougan and Alexis Wukich.

As we transitioned from current service to future service, a new member was formally introduced to the Club. Alexis Wukich introduced Nicholas Wukich, who graciously expressed sincere appreciation to the Club and our Membership for welcoming him as a New Member and his readiness to practice “service above self.”

Two future Rotary Club of Pittsburgh service projects were introduced during the Club Assembly. First, the Center for Entrepreneurial Learning at Urban Pathways Charter School was introduced by Jerry Cozewith, Linda Clautti, Sally Mizerak and Cherie Moshier. The center will provide a “space” where students will learn the fundamentals of business creation from volunteers, teachers and mentors, and ultimately develop their own enterprises so that they may become self-sufficient individuals who can provide for themselves and their families.

The second service project which was highlighted also focuses on education, but in an international setting. P.K. Weston shared the story of Hekima Place in Nairobi, Kenya a center founded by Pittsburgh native Kate Fletcher. Hekima Place strives to provide the structure of a wall of support to Kenyan girls, orphaned by HIV, as they go to school – from elementary through college. The goal of this program is to work with Rotary Interact and Rotaract to combine our efforts and make a difference on a global scale and as P.K. reminded us, by ensuring that one child is educated, a village is changed, a nation is changed and the world is changed.

Every Rotarian and Guest left the room inspired and respectful of all that we have had the opportunity to do as a club, and all that we will continue to do.
