LAST MEETING: 2/6/13

By: John Chamberlin

Welcome to the Live Steam. This is an overview of the Pittsburgh Rotary meeting held on February 6, 2013. Guy Tumolo provided the invocation, Dolores Nypaver led us in song, The National Anthem, and she was accompanied by Barbara Johnson on the piano.

President Ray passed a card around to be signed and sent good wishes out to Jim Hall who is on the disabled list due to cataract surgery.

As President Ray was discussing the March 6th Ethics Symposium at Duquesne University, Ben Luffey noted that William Isler, President of the Fred Rogers Group, will be the event's keynote speaker.

Don't forget that the Pittsburgh Business Ethics Awards will be held on February 20, 2013 at the hotel. The lunch starts at 11:30 and, if you plan on attending, you need to RSVP with Terry by February 20th.

President Ray then announced that Terry Dougan has given notice that he has accepted a full time job in the accounting department at the Urban Pathways Charter School. Terry also spoke to the crowd and thanked everyone for his Christmas gift and provided a few more details regarding his new position. Terry will be with us until after the Ethics Symposium.

A search for a replacement for Terry will begin immediately. If you are aware of any capable individuals, please have them forward their resumes to Ray or the Board Members.

Kirk Chamber, Secretary, then made his announcements. In his tech-tip, he discussed the group "Anonymous" who hacked computer records and exposed a spreadsheet of personal information for approximately 4600 corporate executives. Kirk reminded everyone to be sure to secure your data.

Kelli Robbins then provided her 3 Minutes of Fame. Kelli discussed her company's work in providing professional answering services to many companies so as to provide a high-touch, live-person, customer service experience when her clients receive calls through the various client answering systems.

Mike Smith, Co-Chair of Tanner Committee, then made his summary presentation of the 2012 Tanner Event. Some notes about the event from Mike's presentation:

- Mike thanked all of the committee members, Rotarian and non-Rotarian
- He recognized the registration table staff that volunteer each year
- Gave special recognition to PK Weston for coordinating the auction and with the help from her friends
- This year's auctions produced a net of $18,000!
- Thanks Barbara Johnson for underwriting the auction area piano player
- Recognized Jim Ludwig whose talents were used once again in preparing those wonderful auction baskets
- Discussed all of the award winners
- Recognized Emcee Paul Alexander, Auctioneer Jim Roddey and Roasters of Manny Sanguillon; David Giusti, Grant Jackson and Jim Meston
- And the net financial result of the event was $39,514
- Sam Reich then spoke to the crowd regarding his original inception no the event, the evolution of the event and the potential future of the event.
- Mike took questions/comments from the crowd about the event from the members.

Have a great Rotary Week!
