LAST MEETING: 6/27/12

By: John Chamberlin

It's a WRAP! President Andy Dlinn is now PAST-President and Ray Amelio is the President. Here's what happening at PAST-President Andy's wrap-up meeting.

We started as usual with an invocation by Phyllis Comer and then were led in song by Dolores Nypaver while Barbara Johnson accompanied her on the piano.

Lots of notes from the meeting so let's get right to it! Andy gave his year-end recap including these few notes:

This year at the District 7300 Conference, our club placed #4 with a ribbon for membership growth

We were honored as #1 for Vocational Service

We received R.I.'s "Change Maker Award" which means we had high scores in all of our lines of service due to various projects including Jim Wood's and Ben Luffy's work on the Ethics Symposium

Andy hopes to keep the weekly feedback surveys in place stating they have been enlightening

Andy believes the changes in the new member application to help clarify expectations, on both parts, have been successful

Andy is glad that we are growing the membership but disappointed that we did not hit the 130 total for which he was striving

From the four "outreach" events, we now have about 100 leads of individuals to follow-up on for membership

Certificates of Appreciation were given to all committee chairs and board members and then special recognition was given to:

Dennis Gilfoyle, for his work on the Business Round Table and Ethics Symposium

Sally Mizerak, for her work on the Business Round Table and every other committee

Kelli Robbins, for her work as Membership Committee Chair and enthusiasm

Lynne Scanga, for her work on the Business Round Table

Karl Ohrman, who's blood runs Rotary for his work as District Membership Chair

Linda Fischer, for her work as Foundation Chair

P.K. Weston, for her work on the Scholarship Committee and the Chuck Tanner event

Robin Zoufalik, Rotarian of the Year for his work as the Speaker Chair, Exchange Student Chair and his work on the Sto-Rox project.

Andy then passed the gavel to Ray Amelio and the bell sounded. No meeting next week!!!!
