LAST MEETING: 7/13/11

By John Chamberlin

President Andy Dlinn presided over his first meeting and, according to Andy, we have a hundred years behind us but, “We’ve only just begun.” The meeting was called to order. Ray Amelio provided the invocation, Linda Fischer and Kelli Robbins led us in the pledge and then Linda, Kelli and Andy, accompanied by Andy’s daughter Chaya Sarah Dlinn on the piano, led everyone in song, “We’ve Only Just Begun” by the Carpenters. (It actually wasn’t as trying on the ears as you might think once we got started.)

Andy recapped Linda Fischer’s year, listed her accomplishments, applauded her hard work and presented her with a bouquet of flowers. Linda received a standing ovation.

During “Good News,” Sam Reich pledged $100 in Linda Fischer’s name to support Rotary Membership efforts for the club.

Margaret DeLeeuw then took her first shot at the Secretary duties. Margaret is going to initiate a new item in her Secretary presentations. She is going to review one item from the Rotarian Magazine each week to help familiarize herself and the rest of the club with the magazine as well as the functions of Rotary International. Today, Margaret highlighted new R.I. President, Kalyan Banerjee.

President Andy then introduced the club’s Past Presidents in attendance. Welcome to Yvonne Campos, David Gilpatrick, Wally Jenkins, Lou Walsh, Joel Nagel, Richard Dixon, Tom Wilson, Dave Maxwell, Karl Ohrman, Jim Dronney and Don Arnheim.

After President Andy listed the leadership team, he invited Robin Zoufalik to the podium to discuss the Speakers Committee. Robin stated his goal is to get at least 3 top Pittsburgh CEOs to the podium in the next year. He encouraged others invite corporate and community leaders and sports figures to speak at the meetings. He prefers those who are making a difference in Pittsburgh.

Sally Mizerak then reviewed the strategic plan that had been created a few years ago. Sally will work to crystalize the value proposition for being a Pittsburgh Rotarian and start to move some of the plan’s elements forward.

Ray Amelio then reviewed the signature project. We will be continuing to work with the McKees Rocks and Uptown areas this year.

In President Andy’s final remarks, his goal is to achieve 130 members by the end of his term. In order to assist with this, our club will have four “outreach” events throughout the year. Prospective members and members will be invited to these events. The first event will be motivational speaker, Kivi Bernhard, who will be presenting sometime in September.

Andy also plans to meet with every member of the club to determine their personal interest in Rotary. Additionally, he is planning on starting another initiative to approach the large corporations of the area to consider a newly approved, “corporate membership.”

We ended with the Four-way test and the encouragement that, “We’ve only just begun.”
