LAST MEETING: 6/15/11

By John Chamberlin

Welcome to the "500" version of Livesteam (called 500 because, as this is written, time stands still with the Pittsburgh Pirates playing .500 baseball). If you are not a baseball fan, this simply means the Buccos have won as many games this year as they have lost at this point.

The meeting was called to order with an invocation by Ray Amelio who is batting .500 at meeting lead-off position. Then, we were led in song, "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," by Jim Hall on the piano and new member James Gourlay, Music Director of the River City Brass on tuba.

President Linda welcomed everyone and proudly announced that the club won a few awards at the District Conference. She will provide the entire list at her final meeting of her term. Two of the awards were 1st place (which is better than .500 just in case you are scoring at home.)

During the Good News announcements, Past President Richard Dixon requested that all members be reminded that the club members should not solicit each other for business. Business should happen by association.

Substitute Secretary Margaret DeLeeuw, who has been batting BETTER than .500 as the "minor league secretary" the past few months, stepped to the plate and provided a "home run" secretary report.

NEXT MEETING

Date: June 22, 2011
Speaker: Todd Reidbord
Title: President
Organization: Walnut Capital
Topic: The Bakery Square Development

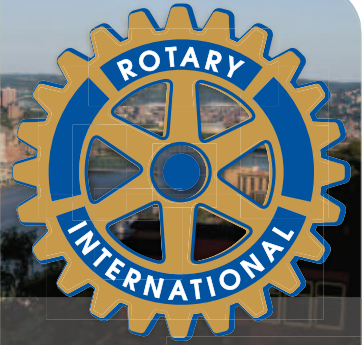

Mike Smith then gave us the Chuck Tanner event "pitch." The event will be held at the David Lawrence Convention Center on November 19, 2011. The event will include the Major League Baseball Manager of the Year Award, the Pirates' Minor League Manager of the Year Award, our Business Manager of the Year and the Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year Award. Additionally, instead of a "roast," the event will have a tribute to Chuck Tanner. Dancing will also follow the banquet!!! Tickets and event sign-up sheets are available now.

Robin Zoufalik, a 500-career goal casual hockey player, then introduced our speaker of the day, Elizabeth Shribman, Ambassadorial Scholar who spent 3 weeks in the Czech Republic. Elizabeth is the daughter of Post Gazette Editor-in-Chief David Shribman.

Elizabeth detailed her trip and her learning experience. She discussed the many cultural differences she observed as well as the many similarities. Additionally, she provided a slide presentation of photos from her trip. Elizabeth enjoyed the trip so much that she has requested a second scholarship to return to the Czech Republic for 12 months.

Elizabeth answered a few questions then received a standing ovation for her presentation. The bell rang and the meeting was over. Pirates are STILL at .500!
