LAST MEETING: 11/2/11

By: John Chamberlin

Welcome to the “Holy HECK It’s November” edition of Livesteam. Yep, it’s November, don’t stand still because life might bull you over. Our meeting started with Lou Walsh’s invocation and Al McIvor leading the pledge and collaborating on the song of the day, “When the Saints Go Marching In” with Jim Hall on the piano.

President Andy Dlinn mentioned that we are, once again, participating in the Salvation Army’s “Treasure for Children” program. This program helps under privileged children at Christmas time. Andy also announced that this year’s Meager Meal will be on November 23rd at Linda Clautti’s Urban Pathways Charter School at 925 Penn Avenue.

Dick Hodgdon told us that former Rotarian Bob Ross recently passed away. Bob was a member of the Club from 1983 – 1991. Our condolences go out to Bob’s family.

Secretary Margaret DeLeeuw acknowledged guests and visiting Rotarians.

Mike Smith reminded everyone that the Tanner Event is fast approaching. Included in the evening’s program Pirates Manager Clint Hurdle will present the Chuck Tanner Manager of the Year Award to Tiger’s Manager Jim Leyland. Closing out the evening will be a Toast to the late, great Chuck Tanner. Mike also mentioned that we have only 43 members currently participating in some manner. Please decide how you can help – purchase a program ad, purchase a ticket for one of your customers, round up silent auction items or donate toward the Rotary Wheel Barrel of Cheer. It will be a great event!

Karl Ohrman was presented with a Paul Harris Fellow Plus 8 recognition. Karl humbly received the recognition from Past District Governor, Cindy Sakala.

Shortly after, PDG Sakala was introduced, by Linda Fischer, as our guest speaker. Her topic: The Rotary International Foundation.

- Cindy emphasized the fact that the Rotary Foundation is EVERYONE’s
- The Foundation is supported by 1.2 million members worldwide
- Our own Bob Williams left an endowment to complete an ambassadorial scholarship
- We can all learn from Bob’s generosity
- The Foundation also needs “time contributions” for Rotarians to travel and execute the mission
- For those unfamiliar with the Foundation it provides Humanitarian Grants to support medical clinics and well building as well as a number of matching grants, volunteer service grants, District Simplified Grants and grants to support health and hunger.
- 40% of your money donated to the Foundation comes back to our area
- $80,000 was given to Polio Plus last year by our district
- Our District has given over $1m to the Foundation making 7300 the 6th in the world for donation totals

The meeting was closed at 1:30pm with the sound of the bell. Have a good week.
