The new Heritage Center will have storage, research rooms, exhibits, gift shop and multipurpose room.

They have a huge collection 25,000 artifacts plus archives. Currently stored in the municipal building, in the Museum plus in various places around town.

She gets up to 6 inquiries a week for research assistance

The organization is looking to enhance exhibit technology, do more outreach... wider audience.

May try adult workshops, children's programs, and expect to share info about the complete area community which includes entire school district.

More than a building, implications of going big: Paid staff, increased operating budget, more volunteers and need to convince the community to give continued support

Be patient while they work out the details.

How to help: Become a member, donate to campaign, get involved, volunteer
