Announcements

Kevin Love updated members on Inside Story, our late October Fundraiser to be held at the Melbourne Conference Centre on the corner of Little Lonsdale and Swanston Streets. This will be a great event involving detectives going through the details of a past case with the audience. We are looking for 250 guests so club members are urged to publicise the event amongst their networks. The venue is adjacent to train and tram transport and the neighboring parking station has a discounted evening rate.

President Kevin asked members to work with Bernie Gerlinger on the eBay auction of unwanted items and noted wine sales would resume for Christmas cheer. He also highlighted that the club's 25 year anniversary was rapidly approaching, all were welcome at the board meeting to be held 6pm Wednesday 21 September, and noted the website had been upgraded.

Majorie Gerlinger informed members that a single logon for multiple registrations is not yet allowable under our current software system but will hopefully be possible in the next software update.

Guest Speakers

Chairman Ed informed the audience that last week was poets' week and that poetry picks up emotion and puts it into words, an area songwriters have enjoyed in more recent times.

Our first guest speaker was charter member and PP Terry Cocks, a long standing lover of poetry. He expressed a love for the works of Keats and Browning and a great admiration for Tennyson and on the Australian front, Les Murray. Poetry is an escape from a mundane world and Keats emphasised emotion rather than reason but this escape from logic was kept in form by the structure of the poem. With great passion, Terry opened with a stanza from Eve of St Agnes that showed an involvement with nature contrasted against the background of the industrial revolution.

After reading a section of Ode to a Nightingale, Terry moved on to the higher poetry of Tennyson, Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Browning, making the point that they really did write beautiful poems! Meeting at Night was given as evidence of Robert Browning's mastery, with the diversity of his work demonstrated by the humour in The Pied Piper of Hamelin, a lesson for all service providers in our club. Terry also spoke of the strong bond between Browning and his wife, Elizabeth Barrett Browning and the poetic skills they both possessed before closing with Tennyson's Loss of a Friend and Dylan Thomas's Do not go Gentle into that Good Night.

Our second guest speaker was Paddy Brady, a Melbourne Vet, Golfer and Poet with a particular love of Australian poetry. He began with My Country, a poem written in London by a homesick 19 year old Dorethea McKellar before speaking of the achievements of Henry Lawson, Banjo Patterson and CJ Dennis. Paddy took the audience through John O'Brien's Little Irish Mother, Henry Lawson's The Captain of the Push and for a contemporary touch, Terry Little's Almost on for Two! Paddy finished with Banjo Patterson's Man from Ironbark, a more romanticised view of the late 19th Century Australia than Lawson's work.

Chairman Ed closed the guest speaker session by thanking Terry and Paddy for their great efforts and given poetry was the morning's theme, left us with The Highwayman.

President Kevin thanked our guests for attending and closed the meeting with the Rotary theme.

Paul Harris Breakfast on 16th November

by MEEHAN, John

Instead of our normal weekly meeting we are holding our Annual Paul Harris breakfast on November 16th. Bookings essential. See details below.

Professor Patrick McGorry, AO

"A 21st Century Approach to Mental Health Care"

Patrick D McGorry is Executive Director of Orygen Youth Health, Australia's largest youth mental health organisation, comprising a world-renown research centre and a clinical service targeting the needs of young people with emerging serious mental illness. He is also Professor of Youth Mental Health at the University of Melbourne and founding member of the National Youth Mental Health Foundation (Headspace) board.

Prof McGorry is a world-leading researcher in the area of early psychosis and youth mental health. His innovative, ground-breaking research has played an integral role in the development of safe, effective treatments that have helped transform the lives of tens of thousands of young people the world over.

Orygen Youth Health's early psychosis service, known as EPPIC, was founded by Professor McGorry in 1992, and has been hugely influential internationally. Its evidence-based model has been exported to many countries, and early intervention in psychosis has become one of the major growth points in international mental health reform. Prof McGorry has played a major role in mental health reform in Australia as a key adviser to the Because mental health matters: Victorian Mental Health Reform Strategy 2009-19, and is frequently asked to advise on youth mental health policy internationally.

Professor McGorry also has interests in the areas of homelessness, refugees and torture survivors, youth suicide, youth substance use and the treatment of emerging personality disorder.

Prof McGorry has published over 300 papers and book chapters, edited five books, and has been the recipient of numerous awards, including: Australian of the Year 2010, the Melbourne Award for contribution to community in 2009, the Castilla Del Pino Award in recognition of his significant contribution to the field of Psychiatry in Spanish-speaking countries in 2009, the Australian Government Centenary Medal in 2003 and the Foundations' Medal of the Australian Society for Psychiatric Research in 2001.

The event will be held on Level 17, RACV Club, 501 Bourke Street, Melbourne, Cost $58 per head. Time 7:15am for 7:30am to 9am.
