Bob Farren to speak Thursday January 10

Our speaker on Thursday, January 10 is Bob Farren, the CEO of VIP Sports & Entertainment and the Loudoun Hounds Professional Baseball Club. The Loudoun Hounds are the dream that Bob has made come true. For over 11 years, Bob has doggedly led efforts to bring a spectacular, fan-friendly ballpark to Northern Virginia at no taxpayer cost.

Bob is a Long Island native who still idolizes legendary second baseman Bobby Richardson -- you can sometimes still hear an accent when he says "New York Yankees." But Bob is a Loudouner through and through, with almost 20 years in our beautiful county, a lovely home in Waterford and a successful insurance brokerage career in the Leesburg business community. His clients have included the Washington Redskins, the Washington Capitals and the Baltimore Ravens, as well as the Shakespeare Theatre, the Kennedy Center and numerous other sports and entertainment organizations.

Bob staunchly believes in doing business the right way, giving back to his community, and excelling in every aspect to the point of setting new standards. Those beliefs come through in the Loudoun Hounds, an organization getting ready to reinvent entertainment in this area with an unprecedented and unparalleled opportunity for family affordable fun.
