ROTARY CLUB OF ASHBURN, VIRGINIA

Volume 3, Issue 40

May 2, 2013

Cindy Chambers to speak on Thursday, May 2.

Cindy Chambers was presented Inova Loudoun Hospital Foundation's 2013 Golden Helix award, given to a volunteer who has dedicated his or her time and resources to impact philanthropy at the hospital and by so doing improve the quality of patients' lives by making the institution the best it can be. The award cited Chambers outstanding record in raising donations for local, national and international charities, including ILHF, where she has helped bring in hundreds of thousands of dollars for the hospital foundation in less than two years. Chambers is a member of the ILHF Board of Directors and also is a member of Loudoun charity 100 Women Strong.
