ROTARY CLUB OF ASHBURN, VIRGINIA

Volume 3, Issue 43

May 23, 2013

Justin Dobson, Owner of Comfenergy will speak on Thursday, May 23.

Justin brings over 25 years of Heating and Air Conditioning experience to Comfenergy. As a former HVAC business owner, Justin has been diagnosing comfort issues and high energy costs for residential and commercial clients throughout Northern Virginia. His passion to help clients be comfortable in their home or office space, while educating them on how to lower energy costs are the main reasons he started Comfenergy in 2010. Justin graduated from Virginia Tech University where he earned a B.S. in Marketing Management, and a minor concentration in Sociology. Justin played baseball for the Hokies before entering the Minor Leagues, where he played second base for the Ohio Valley Red Coats.

Comfenergy focuses on evaluating the HVAC equipment, the ducting system, and the building envelope to deliver the proper diagnosis and solution to the problem. "You have to evaluate all 3 sides of the comfort and efficiency triangle to achieve true comfort and efficiency in your home."
