ROTARY CLUB OF ASHBURN, VIRGINIA

Volume 3, Issue 17

November 1, 2012

Cindy Chambers scheduled for Thursday, November 1.

Cindy Chambers is a resident of Ashburn Virginia where she lives with her husband and their two dogs. Having left Corporate America where she was an IT Executive, she now dedicates her time and energy to her passion for helping others. She supports Local, National and International charitable initiatives, and in the past two years alone she has been instrumental in raising hundreds of thousands of dollars for charities supporting Loudoun County.

Cindy is on the board of Inova Loudoun Hospital Foundation. The function of this board is to raise funds for Inova hospital through donations and fund raising events. Cindy's interactions with wonderful hospital personnel and witnessing the numerous children visiting the hospital inspired her to create a way to reduce children's fears of challenging life events, while introducing them to some of the wonderful people who they might meet along their journey. She also wanted to provide a way for others to be able to participate in giving back.

As a result, she created, "The Beamer Book Series." Through The Beamer Book Series, Beamer, a gentle therapy dog, provides comfort and teaches children about challenging life events. Net proceeds from the book sales go to charities.

In September 2012, the first book in the series, Beamer Visits The Emergency Room, was released through Amazon.com and Barnes & Noble. Hundreds of copies have been sold, and the book is now available world-wide.

Cindy is on the board of a local charity, [Paws to Care.org](http://Paws to Care.org) and is a member of [100 Women Strong](http://100 Women Strong), a prominent philanthropic organization in Loudoun County. She has an endless passion for helping others, and her philosophy has always been, "Good Goes to Good!"

Gary Clemons, Citizen of the Year Nominee

The Rotary Club of Ashburn has selected Gary M. Clemens as its Rotary District 7610 Citizen of the Year Award nominee. As Ashburn Rotary's nominee, Mr. Clemens will receive a District Governor Citation and will be recognized at the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce Business Showcase Breakfast on November 8, 2012 at Belmont Country Club. The nominee chosen, among the 52 district clubs, will be invited to the District Foundation Awards banquet in November 2012 and will receive a Paul Harris Fellow Recognition, one of Rotary's most prestigious recognition awards.

The Citizen of the Year award recognizes unusually dedicated community leaders who have stood out among the many unsung residents and heroes who have worked so hard serving our youth, our schools, public safety, land use, transportation, the environment and more.

Mr. Clemens has served as the Circuit Court Clerk of Loudoun County since 2000 and is a resident of Ashburn, VA. He has actively served the county's youth volunteering as a coach for various sports, serving on the Advisory Commission for Youth, teaching Sunday School classes, and educating local high school students about volunteering, public service and ethics. Mr. Clemens has also played a leadership role in a number of organizations including the United Way, Loudoun Destination Foundation, the Patriot Project, and Broad Run Athletic Booster Club. In 2010, he was elected president of the Virginia Association of Local Elected Officials and continues to serve as Public Relations Chair for the association.

A former Rotarian, Mr. Clemens has been a guest speaker at Ashburn Rotary on numerous occasions. The breadth and depth of his commitment to the community he serves in so many ways along with his personal grace and wit is always welcome.

Quote for the Week

“One drop of water helps to swell the ocean; one spark of fire helps to give light to the world. None are too small, too feeble, too poor to be of service. Think of this and act.”

- Hannah Moore
