

Marc Chinoy from The Regis Group will discuss the future of the internet and intellectual property on Thursday, September 26.

Marc Paul Chinoy is the founder and president of The Regis Group, Inc. Chinoy is an internationally recognized executive facilitator experienced in strategic planning, issue resolution, and transition management. Chinoy provides strategic planning and decision support to a wide range of industries including telecommunications, healthcare, and the legal profession.

Chinoy has facilitated both harmonization and industry-wide issue resolution efforts related to Healthcare with an emphasis on quality assurance, nursing, and pharmacy. Chinoy was engaged at the request of the FCC to manage the coordination of a wide range of leaders from the telecommunications industry in the creation of consumer protection guidelines regarding fraudulent billing practices known as 'Cramming.'

Recently, Chinoy acted as a facilitator for multinational discussions intended to lead to international patent law harmonization. In this matter, Chinoy was engaged by the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) acting in cooperation with the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), an engagement which resulted in successful efforts to assist the European Union select a single patent search system for the continent. Marc played an important role in key merger and acquisition ventures, including the divestiture of Bell Communications Research, Inc. by the (then) seven Regional Bell Operating Companies.

In addition to consulting and facilitation, Chinoy has frequently spoken publicly on Intellectual Property-related subjects, and conducted training on subjects related to business success through planning and cyclical decision making processes. He has conducted executive training and leadership development for the United States Chamber of Commerce Institutes for Organization Management at prominent universities throughout the country.

The Four-Way Test

"Of the things we think say or do:

- 1) Is it the TRUTH?
- 2) Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3) Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4) Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

Members of the Ashburn Rotary Club volunteered at the Sonak Family Chiropractic Family Festival on Saturday September 21st. Proceeds from the festival benefited the Loudoun Free Clinic.
