President Jan Black's Message

Aloha Fellow Rotarians & Friends of Rotary, Suddenly it's here: Yes, we're into the Holiday Season, with the Hawaii Kai Christmas Parade coming up November 29 - Let's all walk with those ducks. Much activity and frivolity as we near 2015, with an exciting, full agenda ahead. Our long tradition of serving Thanksgiving Dinner to Kupuna at Lunalilo Home happens Thanksgiving Day. Kumu Hula Auntie Lei and Ka Hale I O Kahala Halau dance & chant, as we talk story with the folks and show our Aloha for their lives & contributions to our community, a joyous sense of Ohana.

Speaking of Lunalilo Home, our Kaiser Hi Interact Club will be resuming the garden project January 22, 9 AM. A really good project for all parties in the past, this time we'll also have the opportunity to work with a master gardener that Lunalilo has arranged to assist us. Feel free to participate, roll up the sleeves, dig into the aina. Wending its way from Kamiloiki School, down Lunalilo, finishing with a flourish at Koko Marina Shopping Center November 29th, this year's Christmas Parade promises to be fun for all. Prior to the Parade, we'll have counted the ballots to determine the winners in the Duck Beauty Contest so that we can reveal the winners. Though it may not be the New York City Macy's towering event, you'll enjoy all the floats, bands, First Responders, HPD and numerous others, including your faithful HKRC's unique Racks of Beautified Duckys, a first for the club and for Hawaii Kai. In the weeks preceding the Parade, our Duck Beauties have been on display in various Hawaii Kai Shopping sites for folks to vote for their favorite. Plan to walk with us, greet the community, other participants and share in the holiday spirit. Good exercise, community participation & FUN for All. Karen and Judy J are planning our Christmas fun get together for 12/14, so bring the family, the pool will be open, the more the merrier.

Please join with me in wishing a Happy Thanksgiving to all, as we join with our friends at Lunalilo Home for our Traditional Dinner. Aloha to you and your loved ones. Aloha kakou, Jan.
