President Jan Black's Message

Dear Club Members,

We have just experienced one of our most exciting weeks of this Rotary year, placing us in good company with many members of our community.

Over the last few days - two Interact members along with their advisor Mr. Higa, re-vitalized the garden at the back of the Lunalilo Care Home with the help of Judy J, Jerry B, Alex and yours truly.

Thanksgiving Day the Kaiser Interact Club joined us in a wonderful (service) event at Lunalilo Home, first organizing entertainment then serving Thanksgiving dinner to the Kupuna Residents. It was a smashing success by all reports from the Lunalilo Home family. We enjoyed the blessing of presenting acts of puppeteering, sign dance, ukulele and band music. Many members of the community came at our request, especially Kumu Hula Auntie Lei and her Ka Hale I O Kahala Halau, with keiki (little & larger) and ladies, filling the room with Aloha.

Then, on Saturday, we participated as always, in the annual Hawaii Kai Christmas Parade down Lunalilo Home Road, this time adding a first for the club and the community, as we displayed our Duck Beautification Contestants, proudly riding in a specially designed & constructed (Mahalo, Evan Knight) Duck Beauty Display Float, riding on its own wheels. Mahalo to community members who joined in with Judy J, Alex, Lan and, yes, me too. walking the parade route with us. The large banner we carried announcing the decorated Ducks, received standing ovations with many questions about when we'll have those cute little duckies floating in the Marina. The encouragement was deeply satisfied as we continue our planning for the future.

The next step in our membership growth program occurs in January, when we host a gala luncheon, inviting folks from throughout the Hawaii Kai Community to learn about Rotary, and What's in it for You(?) including powerful community service projects & events, networking & participating with new friends in the world's most respected community service organization.

Aloha kakou, Jan.
