President Glenys told us that members taking part in the Bike-Trek Ride this year will not be covered by Rotary Insurance. Harvey Club have apparently decided to continue anyway but members of our Club planning on riding need to be aware of the ruling. Anyone wanting to attend the Janet Holmes a Court talk at Bunbury Club and who has not paid already, needs to pay Glenys by this Monday the 12th of September.

Like the good medico he is Pres elect Stephen Hinton ran a question and answer exercise to find out what the patients (we members) thought about various aspects of the Club. Members not at the last meeting will be emailed the questionnaire so please reply to Stephen so he can collate the responses and report back on where the Club should be heading, particularly when Stephen is at the helm in 2012-2013.

The body language of members whilst answering the questions was interesting. Some held their heads deep in thought, some held the questionnaire below the table and some gazed into the middle distance perhaps waiting for their inbuilt hard drive to spit out an answer. What does this all mean? nothing probably except that we are all different.

Trevor Wilson went to Christchurch after the major earthquake as part of a Salvation Army team visiting and distributing goods and money to the many people affected. The scale of the disaster as shown on Trevor's photo's was immense and although most of the infrastructure is working again there must be many house owners suffering where their home seemingly OK on the outside was too badly damaged internally to live in and will have had to be demolished. As shown in the photo's and reported elsewhere buildings made of timber fared much better than those made of brick. A very good talk Trevor and obviously the Salvo's from Australia and New Zealand provided great on the ground service to those affected in the immediate days after the quake. This prompted President Glenys to ask the question how are things in Christchurch now and could Rotary help.

To all Queenslanders'

God made sugar cane grow where it is hot
And teetotal abstainers to grow where it's not.
Let the sin-bosun warn of perdition to come,
we'll drink it and chance it, so bring on the rum.

Bundaberg rum, overproof rum
Will tan your insides and grow hair on your bum.
Let the blue ribbon beat on his old empty drum
Or his waterlogged belly, we'll stick to our rum
