SIS THE JEASON TO BE TOLLY

We had a wonderful Christmas party meeting this week at the World Kitchen, but No the editor is not tipsy! We had a very clever magician, Steve Silk as entertainment this week and he told an amazing Tairy Fail (fairy tale) where he changed the initial letters of the main words in the story of Cinderella and Chince Parming. It was hilarious! So I thought I would have a go!

We also had a delicious meal that began with a choice of Panko crusted prawns with chilli, caramel sauce and Asian dressing or Red onion and goat's cheese tart with tomato chutney, rocket and parmesan. YUM! Main course was a choice of Turkey Wellington with chestnut, cranberry stuffing or roasted scotch fillet with braised beef cheek pie, both served with thyme and honey carrots and garlic potatoes- Double yummy. Steve meandered around the tables doing little tricks with ropes before doing his main show to the whole group. This included some bad jokes, a story about tying shoes laces at school, getting President Stephen to guess a card from a deck, that was amazing. Dessert was a choice of a mango, passionfruit and toasted coconut pavlova roulade or a traditional cherry and berry trifle. All in all an excellent night.

More pictures over the page!

NEXT MEETING: Wed, 9 January 2013
