What are our troops doing in Afghanistan?

Nola Marino, MHR, gave a most informative and entertaining rendition about her recent parliamentary trip to Afghanistan. She explained what our troops, and others, are doing in Afghanistan. Glenys McDonald introduced Nola, who is a born and bred Brunswick girl, with a history in dairy farming and things mechanical. Our troops were deployed to Afghanistan to mentor the Afghanistan National Army and police force. They are charged with the task of restoring core services and civil rights to the Afghanistan people. Most of Australia's work takes place in Uruzgan province, where our troops have been responsible for building wells, bridges, roads, schools, providing education and drought relief and demining some 132 328 square metres of contaminated land so that the locals can return to growing vegetables and crops. We can be proud of our men and women. Nola had some profound experiences to share which generated a great deal of interest from members, but an important message was that this support and interest will be needed when our men and women return home. Nola was thanked for an excellent talk by Andy.

OUR SPECIAL GUESTS THIS WEEK INCLUDED.....

This week was a bit unusual, we nearly had more guests than members. We were treated to a great talk from Nola Marino, MHR and member for Forest, as well as five members from Sail into life, Sharon Kavanaugh, Bjerne Chortler, Adam Johnson, John Bridgeham, Matt Granger from SIL and Bunbury Leschenault Rotary members. We also welcomed Dr Graham Beacon from Bunbury Regional Hospital, Rolf Stein and Alison from Bunbury Surf Life Saving Funds raised from the Black Tie Ball were distributed. Sharon Kavanaugh, from Sail into Life was presented with a cheque for $5 157, which will go to the purchase of a new boat. This Saturday (2 Feb, @ 9.00), has been set aside for members wishing to get some experience as skippers on the boats. Thanks to Mike Honeywell for the Sail Into Life "t" shirts, very colourful!

Bunbury Surf Life Saving Association was also a recipient of funds from the Black Tie Ball. Alison was also presented with a cheque for $ 5157, which will be used to purchase surf rescue boards, training and leadership for the youth members and instruction in safe water habits for the nippers.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Trevor Wilson, International: Email correspondence from Rosa, Brazil exchange student, who reported she has started school, attended a Rugby club and is settling in nicely with her host family. Trevor reminded members about the International Night, 13 February, at Bunbury Districts Power Boat Club. Dress up in any international costumes purchased on your travels. You can register on line but this must be done before Wed 6 Feb.

Peter Hill, Community: Children's Fair, we have a new attraction this year, which is a climbing wall. Still need lots of children's book and toys. Also we need lots of helpers so be sure to register. Following the fair, David Keyser has offered to host the post fair debriefing.

WEEKLY COMPETITION

This week's winners were Terry Coote, Mike Honeywell and Nola Marino. The jackpot escalates from $324 for next week.

FINES

Terry Paini was Fine's Master for this week and along with his personal assistant, me, had lots of fines from the winery tour down under at Margret River. Ray J carried the box for impersonating a wine connoisseur.

Guess Who.....

Did not go to the winery tour

Did not go to the special meeting on Wed 23 Jan

Complained about the sun's reflection from Dean's head on the bus trip to MR.

Was watching for kangaroos on the side of the road- when he should have been watching for those on the road!

Called someone an idiot for not watching the road!

Suggested a wine be named after a member who was described as red and well rounded!

Complained of putting on weight over the Chrissy break, whilst eating a full sample of every dessert made by MR Rotary !

Wore sunglasses on the way home from MR- It was 9.00pm!

Filled up the bus with crates of wine- and then blamed the president!

Was from Victoria

Turned 84

God forbid -tried to impersonate Len and Dean!
