Fine Dining at International Night.

Last night over 50 Rotarians and partners experienced their annual International Dinner meeting at the Bunbury Districts Powerboat Club, but this year had both a twist and message. Committee organizers, Trevor and Terry decided on a theme involving the 'haves' and the 'have nots'. A table of 8 would be fine dining with their own chef and waiter, beautiful crockery, gold cutlery and crystal glasses. The 'haves' were chosen through a silent auction. The remainder of the diners would be the 'have nots' and they would experience a bowl of rice, which is the staple daily diet of over 75% of the world's population. Fortunately for the have nots, the bowl of rice was later supplemented with some fabulous Sri Lankan cuisine.

The venue was tastefully decorated with regalia and artefacts from various places around the world and lots of colourful international flags.

The fine dining team included Rob and Kay Prestage and daughters, Kerry and Cheryl, John and Esther Gillingham, Andy and Francesca Perrella.

Rotarians got into the swing of things dressing up in national dress from all over the world. Here are just a few.

Zaki gave the toast to Rotary International. The 'have's' table is in the centre.

The have's table setting

A bit of competition emerged with the naming of capital cities for 80 countries- President Stephen's table ending up winning with a total of 76 correct- obviously well travelled.

Frivolity over the flags- with some tables (your name is safe with me ,Ben) using an electronic helper!

Andy really rubbing in the fact that he is eating scallops while the rest of us had rice. Apparently the scallops were divine! Who is the Matador opposite him?

This is how the menu unpacked- on the left is the haves and on the right, the have nots

Francesca said the scallops were 'to die for'. We will never know!

The bowl of steamed rice was not going down!

The waiter and the waited on.

The have nots had to line up for their food- but served by the lovely ladies from the Multi-cultural Society.

Reef and Beef

Sri Lankan curry chicken, Pittu, potatoe curry and chutney- which was yummy!

Berry Compot Pavlova

Throughout the evening Trevor informed us of some facts about Sri Lanka's population, socio-economic state of play, generating a sense of empathy for why refugees might want to come to Australia, and recognition that we are indeed 'lucky'. Trevor thanked all who helped set up the venue, the 'have's "Chef Kumadoo, the 'have not's' staff, Sabrina and her helpers from the Multi-cultural Society. A great evening!
