St Aiden's of Dardanup

This week was the President BBQ at St Aiden's Winery in Dardanup. Sandro was skipper for the night and charmingly drove 21 members from Bunbury to St Aiden's. On arrival members tasted an array of wines produced by St Aiden's, before settling on a few bottles. President Stephen and Pauline were the last to arrive. Not long after this Chef Jules was sending out delicious morsels of canapés and the SBRC boys were cranking up the BBQ. President Stephen welcomed everyone and a number of toasts followed. As Members enjoyed a beautiful BBQ dinner, Phil gave a run down about St Aiden's history, with the restaurant being the newest addition, only 4 years ago. It was a wild and wintry night outside but the wine flowed freely and member's voices and laughter rose. Fines were a bit hard to follow, but I think I got a few of them. With a great turnout of over 50 -a great night was had by all.

NEXT MEETING: Wed, 5 June, 2013

Toasting our partners

Phil, the proprietor.

Chef, Jules popped out.

Then the fines....

And the fines.....

And the fines.....

Then the girls started .....

And again

Look what I found hiding in the pantry!

And by the end of the night small things amused us.

What happened to that nice bloke at the beginning of the night?

And Kim Rudd was fascinated by the finger food plates that hold your glass!

WEEKLY COMPETITION

This week 100 tickets were sold by Stewart Binnie. On this day, 60 years ago, Sir Edmond Hillary conquered Mt Everest. On this day 10 years ago Sir Rod Down reached base camp with his son, Bob Downe (joke!) Maggie Whatanovi, climbed both sides of Mt Everest and today someone did the highest base jump from Mt Everest. Winners tonight were Ray Jordan, Kim Rudd and moi!

FINES THIS WEEK

John Gillingham carried the box. Fines were hard to follow but I did the best I could.

Guess who.....

Arrived at the airport and sent three bags to three different destinations- it is called 'Beam me up Scotty!'

Said " I don't want to lose you so I'll wear the only life jacket to save you.... Gave someone a needle and said "it's only a little prick" Reply "but you have such nice eyes".

Drove on the wrong seat of a rather old car.

Did not answer their door during door knocking.

The rest were ... well out there!

President Stephen called for donations from anyone who knew they were not at home for Red Shield Appeal- we raised $185- well done guys and gals!
