Club Forum

This week was a Club Forum. President Stephen introduced the Administration team, seen below. He went on to explain the numbers of members who would be in each of the committee and the need to place recruitment as a priority area. Additionally, the club recognised the need for members to be in more than one committee, largely the consequence of some committees not being fully operational throughout the whole year. A list of membership and committees is on the next page.

The club recognised donation from SIMCOA ($2000 for Sail into Life transport) and AccordWest BBQ ($500). President Stephen will be absent for three weeks as he attends a Rotary International Conference in Lisbon. Rod Downe, Roger Veen and Jim Stephen will preside over meetings in his absence.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Luke Andel recently attended a RYPEN weekender for students in the 17– 22 age bracket. He gave us an insight into what went on over the week-end. Students are organized into occupational teams and as such must work together as a team but also for the common good of the whole group. Various problems are thrown into problem solving scenarios as well as some good old fashioned games and challenges. Luke was most thankful to us for sponsorship and highly recommended the experience.

Will Dalaport, Principle of Port Legal and guest of John Gillingham- although here is chatting to Rod.

Gay and Joe Lavery, from Darwin South Rotary Club, popped in . They are holidaying around Australia.

Whilst not guests, it is an opportunity to thank our lovely waitress' Yohaira and Eilidh, who work tirelessly to keep us lubricated.

The short (Dean) and tall (Mike) of it is that Roger returns from holidays (I think). Anyway, he's been away for awhile or not in the Bully.

WEEKLY COMPETITION

This week Mike HoneyPOSSUM (had to get one last dig, Honey!) sold 95 tickets- Well done!. On this day the first cartoon of the sardonic cartoon comic strip cat, Garfield, were released. The cat was named after the artist's grandfather who was named after a USA president. Kitty (nothing to do with Garfield) has $170, and did not go off this week. Congrats to Naru, Bruce and Joe (from Darwin)

FINES THIS WEEK

This week's fine Master was Roger Veen. Dean carried the box for being smaller than Luke Andel.

Guess who.....

Came from Darwin South.
 Who was conspicuous by his absence.
 Was has been or is going overseas to help prop up the Aussie $.
 Mixing up Paul and Peter.
 Suffers from mountain sickness.
 Mixed up Kelvin and Jim Trotter.
 Been playing Chinese whispers with some Gossip.
 Got excited about the Socceroos win.
