Welcome Back !!

*To Kevin and Annette Coote from Croatia and the Mediterranean
Roger and Margo Veen from South America
Zaki and Samar after attending Rotary World Council in Lisbon*

CHAIRMAN ROD: David Keyser reported that the Monteleone house had been sold for $375,000 and that Jim Stephen the agent had donated $5000 from his commission to the Club. And that The Professionals(GSRE) had donated $3950. Jim was not present at the meeting but in your absence Jim you and the Professionals were thanked for your generous donations.

Rod also thanked David Keyser for his great work as Treasurer of the Club for the last 2 years.

DAWN NAYLOR: Reminded all members to check that their up to date email address as shown in Club Runner records was their most up to date address. Apparently this was sometimes a reason why the bully was not arriving.

GUEST SPEAKER

KEVIN. COOTE:

Recently returned from Croatia where he went to purchase one of the loves of his life, (no, no, not Annette) but a new 52 ft. long boat to replace "Wild Thing" that had served well but it was time to move on. Croatia is big in boat making with all parts pre-made and joined together like a car assembly line. Construction of Kev's boat started in January and was finished by April and the boat collected in May. A professional skipper and crewman were hired for the shakedown trip to learn the ropes. Sailing in the Mediterranean to Spain and Portugal and then to Gibraltar was good test. 35k headwinds, gusting to 50k and high waves proved to be a test of crew and boat as the boat has to be manned 24/7. Although it was so rough that even Kevin of the strong stomach contracted that terrible affliction of sailors, sea-sickness, by far the worst thing was seeing that Annette, not renowned as a seasoned sailor took all the pitching and rolling in her stride and cooked hearty meals throughout for the crew. Well done Annette!! Returning to base was followed by some relaxing cruising up the length of Italy and Dalmatia. The boat will stay at Croatia and we wish Kevin and family more enjoyable ventures in what sounds like a magnificent vessel and some great waters to sail on. Considering Kevin was asked to speak at a minutes notice it proved to be a most entertaining talk. Despite the seasickness and everything the Mediterranean waters threw at him he looks amazingly fit and tanned and is still our Kev. Well done mate.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

The first committee meetings will be held after the dinner meeting this week, i.e. July 10th. This is an important one as at this one the projects for this new Rotary Year are decided. Please make an effort to be at your committee meet. Details of individual committees are:
