

Crivello Event Center

Crivello Event Center is a state of the art auditorium.

There are lights and a light board that can be used to create a few different looks, as well as dimming and such.

There is a sound system that users can plug in microphones, instruments, amps, monitors, etc and play them through the house speakers.

Users can project a computer, as well as Apple TV onto the projection screen.