Rotary District 7470 Celebrates Leadership

According to wikipedia.org, Leadership has been described as the "process of social influence in which one person can enlist the aid and support of others in the accomplishment of a common task."

Social influence occurs when an individual's thoughts, feelings or actions are affected by other people. Social influence takes many forms and can be seen in conformity, socialization, peer pressure, obedience, leadership, persuasion, sales, and marketing. In 1958, Harvard psychologist, Herbert Kelman identified three broad varieties of social influence.

- Compliance is when people appear to agree with others, but actually keep their dissenting opinions private.

- Identification is when people are influenced by someone who is liked and respected, such as a famous celebrity.

- Internalization is when people accept a belief or behavior and agree both publicly and privately.

July marks the beginning of a new year for Rotarians all over the world - a new president new club officers, new board members, new goals, etc. As such, it's time for each of us, as Rotarians, to assess our Leadership and the role we wish to play in our clubs. Are we part of the social process to make our clubs stronger and more active in providing "Service Above Self?" Are we actively

Banner Exchange Marks The Beginning Of A New Rotary Year

District 7470 Banner Exchange between outgoing DG Maurie Mader and incoming DG Jim Allison took place on June 23rd. The event, which took place at Mayfair Farms in West Orange, was hosted by the Madison Rotary Club as well as Madison club member Marty Horn, Partner/Owner of Mayfair Farms. The program was attended by about 100 Rotarians and

First Regional Meeting In Belvidere

In addition to club visits, I will kick off my year as Governor with a series of regional meetings to offer club members an opportunity to speak with District leaders on their own turf. The idea is for the governor and his leadership team to learn what clubs are doing and what the District can do to support those efforts. The first regional meeting will be held in Belvidere at 6:30 pm on Tuesday, July 12, at American Legion Post 131, 122Greenwich

Sing Rotary's Song

I can't believe it has happened. My training is over. The Presidents have completed PETS. The Assembly is history and everybody has heard what is coming. In June, I had the pleasure of installing new Rotary leaders at four clubs and on June 23 the Governor's Banner came to Madison. July 1, 2011 has arrived, I am Governor of District 7470, and now without taking a breath, I begin club visits. Our first regional meeting will be on July 12. The focus will soon shift to the President's Ball which is only two and a half months away (September 17). Time and events are moving more quickly than I ever imagined. Kalyan Banerjee, RI President, told me in San Diego that this was going to happen. I thought, "No, not to me." I would be ready. I remember his words well. "Life is short and your Governor's year is even shorter. You need to find your passion and go into action."

So, I defined my passion: "Build strong clubs and motivated members;" convince every Rotarian in the District that our Foundation does great things and is worth at least a $100 contribution each year; get young people involved in all Rotary activities. To spread the word about these goals, I planned regional meetings to deliver the message and listen to our members. I now feel that I am ready to "Sing Rotary's Song" from Newark to Phillipsburg, from Wallkill Valley to Bernardsville. But my primary goal is to get every Rotarian as excited as I am about Rotary. And although I have prepared well, I still feel a little queasy about going into action, for I am not sure Rotarians are ready for me. I guess I'll soon find out.

Well, ready or not, here I come. I have tuned up my voice, the choir has had enough practice and now we are going to pick up the tempo, pump up the volume, find the melody and "Sing Rotary's Song." I may start with a solo, but we will get others to sing loud and clear so that all 7470 Rotarians can hear the melody and join in. Soon we will find a way to get every member of every club to harmonize like never before. You may find that the key signature has changed a little; fewer flats and a few more sharps. But we will sing! We will sing about service, fellowship, and leadership. We will sing about our Foundation and about young people. And we will sing about making a positive difference in our communities and in the world.

So come along and join the chorus and make your voice heard.

Rotary Youth Leadership Award

R.Y.L.A. is an acronym for Rotary Youth Leadership Award. Our district conducts an annual RYLA conference in early June targeted at high school Juniors in our district. The purpose of RYLA is to emphasize leadership, citizenship and personal growth and aims to demonstrate Rotary's respect and concern for youth, provide a conference for selected youth, encourage leadership of youth by youth and to recognize publicly young people who are rendering service to their community.

This year District 7470 RYLA conferences was held from June 3rd to 5th on the campus of Drew University. It gave the participants a flavor of what it is like to live on a college campus. There were over 50 students sent by 25 rotary clubs in our district. The program consisted of motivational lectures, group activities, leadership development, a time for fellowship and time to "hang out" and meet new friends.

Camper Bull of the Madison Club has been leading RYLA in our district for the last 10 years. This year he had a staff of 5 volunteers including: Adam Schulz, incoming president of Denville Sunrise Club, Barry Kroll, DGND, Carla Brady, Student Affairs Director at Drew, and Fred Hoshi and Lisa McMann. Bob Coultas, PRIDE, brought RYLA to our district in his year as District Governor in 1983-84. Bob continues to serve on the RYLA committee and is one of the most popular presenters at the event.

The local theme for this year's RYLA event was "overcoming your fears and accomplishing your dreams." At the end of the conference students were interviewed to get their impression and it was clear that the weekend was an overwhelming success. Lisa Jenkins stated, "I didn't think my life could be changed in a weekend but it was." "I can't believe how we came together as a group of strangers and now we have built lasting friendships." Sarah Bittner, Long Term Exchange Student for Germany, hosted by the Madison Club said, "this is one of the best things I have done in my stay in the United States."

The committee goal for 2011-2012 is to double the number of participants from 50 to 100. The cost of RYLA is fully paid for by local Rotary clubs. Clubs can choose the students they send or work in conjunction with high school guidance departments to select students. This program truly emphasizes Rotary's commitment to working with youth to develop leadership skills and a greater understanding and appreciation of Rotary. After all, these young people will be our future Rotary leaders.

pursuing new members? Are we actively promoting the Five Avenues of Service? Are we actively soliciting opportunities to promote Rotary throughout our communities?

It is time to assess exactly what role(s) we want to play in the future of our clubs. It is time to set a goal in order to reach that role. It is time to make a commitment to Rotary and who we are - individuals, world-wide providing "Service Above Self" in order to make a better tomorrow.

My Finest Hour

Over my 34+ years in Rotary, I have been afforded many opportunities, some during my year as club president in 1983-84, some as District Governor in 1997-98, and some in this remarkable two years as one of 17 Directors of Rotary International. In between those notable years, Ruth and I have traveled to many developing countries on four continents participating in humanitarian projects and polio National Immunization Days. All of these opportunities were notable in their own right, but none can compare with the very first child I immunized against polio in Cameroon, West Central Africa in February of 2003.

I had been involved in every aspect of PolioPlus since 1985, when I chaired the first fundraising efforts in my own club. We attended the 1988 International Convention in Philadelphia, still the most exciting of the 15 International Conventions we have attended. We attempted to go on an NID to Cote de Ivorie in 2001, but at the last minute were denied access to that country due to a military coup. So when we finally had the opportunity to join a primarily Canadian team, I knew it was going to be an emotional experience.

We were fortunate to have on that trip a Rotarian medical doctor, originally from Sri Lanka and now a practicing physician in Ontario, Canada. Dr. Summie had been on an NID in Nigeria the previous year, and became our mentor for this trip. She was very aware of what this opportunity meant to me, and I believe she was determined to ensure it was all I expected.

When I finally got that chance to immunize my first child, this little girl of 3 or 4 years of age, who had never before seen a white face in her little life, tipped back her head, opened her mouth like a bird and allowed me to squeeze those two precious drops of vaccine onto her tongue. Instantly, the emotion just welled up inside of me. Then I looked up and Dr. Summie was standing there. She smiled at me and said, "Now, that child will walk," and I lost it. And if I were telling you this story in person today, my voice might still crack from the incredible memory of that moment. It was then, is now, and probably always will be my Finest Hour in Rotary. As further evidence of what this moment means to me, I have carried the tiny vial that contained those first two drops I administered in my pocket every single day since 2003, now some 8 ½ years later.

My friends, we are so very close to finishing the job of eradicating polio, but we are not there yet. Rotary still needs each and every one of us to contribute time and financial resources to completing this last 1%. Some of you may yet have the opportunity, as I did, to experience that thrill of administering those two drops that will save a child from this horrible, crippling disease. Others of you will participate by contributing money to fund this most difficult last effort. Both are necessary and both are of equal importance.

I could ask for your support from your RI Board of Directors, which is fully invested in this effort, but I am not going to. Instead, I implore you personally from my heart to contribute what you can to ensure our success. There will be that day when every Rotarian who participates in any way will be able to say, "I was there. I was one of the Rotarians who made Rotary the only service organization in history to lead in the eradication of a devastating disease worldwide." Please be a part of that legacy.

Ken Grabeau, Rotary International Director 2010-2012

St. This is the site and time of the regular Belvidere Rotary meeting (so you get a makeup). Members from the five Warren County clubs (Phillipsburg, Washington, Belvidere, Hackettstown and Blairstown) are invited to attend. Each President will, in five minutes or less, tell us what their club is doing with regard to programs, projects, administration and public relations. After each president has spoken we'll have an open discussion with the hope of sharing ideas and learning more about how we can help each other in our efforts to serve. These regional meetings are designed to enlighten the governor and his team and make us responsive to club activities and needs. We want to make it clear to all concerned that the District is the support system for the club and its members. I hope as many members as possible will come out to this first regional meeting and speak out about how the District can help. I look forward to seeing you on July 12. guests representing half the clubs from our district.

The main event started around 7 pm after an hour of socialization. Master of Ceremony Barry Kroll, DGD, welcomed everyone to the banner exchange. After the flag salute, Reverend Nancy Allison, DGE Jim's sister, gave the invocation. True to his plans to Sing Rotary's Song, the incoming DG Jim led the group in a rousing rendition of America the Beautiful.

The program started with our current District Governor Maurie Mader recapping his accomplishments for the last year. For those who were not present, we saw another side of wise-cracking DG when he talked about his health scare and about his passion for youth participation in Rotoract, Interact, etc.

PDG Mike Rabasca formally inducted DGE Jim Allison as the District Governor 2011-12. Governor Jim then presented his wife Susan with a PHF recognition. This was followed by the traditional presentation of the "G-string" pins. PDG Maurie presented the Governor's pin to DG Jim, who presented his DGE pin to DGE Avi, who presented his DGN pin to DGN

Barry, who had no DGD pin to present to the next G in line, Larry Ripley.

Exchange of pins was followed by the transfer of the District Banner from incoming president of Parsippany Rotary Peggy Mader to incoming Madison President Joe Smith.

After giving the PDG pin to Maurie, Governor Jim thanked PDG Maurie for his tireless service to the District. DG Jim also announced that PDG Maurie will be leading the youth efforts like Rotoract. Over the next year, DG Jim wants the District to support the clubs in what the clubs want to accomplish, not dictate what they must do. Before closing DG Jim introduced his family members, the love of his life, his wife, Susan, his 2 sisters, his son, daughter-in-law and the second love of his life, his granddaughter.

Governor Jim's theme for the upcoming year is "Sing Rotary's Song." True to his theme, he led the group in singing several songs, including 2 different versions of "Reach Within and Find Your Passion," which is based on 2011-12 RI President Kalyan Banergee's theme of "Reach Within to Embrace Humanity."

Changing of the Governor's Banner
