

Sample Family of Rotary Activities for Clubs

- Invite Rotarians' spouses and family members to attend club meetings and social events
- Invite Rotarians' families to assist with community service projects
- Develop a club-level award to recognize the members of the family of Rotary for their involvement in club service activities
- Organize a family picnic or other fellowship event
- Organize a "mini Olympics" for community members
- Attend a fair, concert, or sporting event
- Conduct joint meetings with the other Rotary clubs in the area
- Establish a "twin club" relationship with a Rotary club in another country
- Visit Rotarians during times of illness or trauma and ensure that their needs are met
- Organize care for family of Rotary members who can no longer leave their homes; either schedule breaks for their caregivers during which club members offer care, or check regularly for any special needs, e.g. changing a lightbulb
- Support the families of sick or deceased Rotarians in their times of need and encourage them to continue their involvement with Rotary
- Ask newer Rotarians to serve on a committee or spearhead a club project
- Inquire after those who have missed meetings or allowed their membership to lapse
- Maintain communication with RI and Foundation youth program and scholarship participants and alumni. This includes current or former Rotaractors, Interactors, Youth Exchange students, Foundation scholars, and RYLA participants
- Invite qualified RI and Foundation program alumni to join Rotary
- Invite spouses, relatives, and adult children of Rotarians to join Rotary
