

Peter Moore Vocational Services Award

The second object of Rotary is to encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professions; to recognize the worthiness of all useful occupations and to dignify each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

The Peter Moore Vocational Service award is named after our Charter President. Its purpose is to honour members who, using their vocational skills, contacts and talents, devote significant voluntary time, energy and resources to helping youth, community or other charities beyond Rotary.

Nominees must be active Rotarians currently working within their vocation.

Name of Nominee: _____

Classification: _____

Name of Nominator: _____

Date Submitted: _____

Please respond to the following questions:

1. How has the Rotarian demonstrated a pattern of volunteer service using the skills, contacts and talents of their profession

2. What difference have they made in the lives of others because of their vocational talents.

3. If possible, please provide support for this nomination from someone who has benefited from the nominee's sharing of their vocational talent.

“Where your talents and the world’s needs cross.

There lies your vocation.”
