RI President Jennifer Jones imagines a Rotary where members act to make their dreams become reality and they make the most of their club experiences. She urges members to engage more with each other and use these connections to build partnerships that change the world.

Anthony Polito presided over this meeting of the Rotary Club of Lindsay in Murphy's lounge at the Lindsay Golf and Country Club.

Today's guests were: Adele Russell, Lisa Smith and Judith Doxteter. Our guest who is part of the family was Heather Hebert.

To open the meeting, Anthony called for the singing of our National Anthem. Not what one might call 'a stellar performance' but considering that we haven't had much practice and it was a cappella, it was a valiant effort none the less.

The Door Prize: The door prize, provided by Rohan, was won by Ruby.

😊 Adam is happy to be here today having weathered several challenges recently.

🙄 Garry is not his usual jovial self today because he had to deal with an HR issue at work.

Anthony thanked Mike for being finemaster today.

Program:

Anthony turned the meeting over to Garry Burns whose task today was to complete the induction of new members, Laura Love, sponsored by Jim Mackey, Sylvia Brumwell, sponsored by Garry Burns, and Wesley Lestholo, sponsored by John Coxon, . Garry impressed upon the new members that membership in our club means also that they have joined an international organization counting over a million members. Items presented to the new members included a Lapel Pin, a framed 4Way Test and a Rotary coin with the 4 Way Test embossed on the obverse, a framed Object of Rotary and a Certificate of Membership.

Welcome to our new members and thanks to Garry for conducting this ceremony.
