Local advice. Professional service.

Adam graduated from Canadore College in May of 2008 with a 3 year advanced diploma in Business Administration. He joined RBC Dominion Securities in July of 2008. Within the first year, Adam completed the Canadian Securities Course (CSC) and the Conduct and Practices Hand Book Course (CPH). Since then he has completed the Wealth Management Essentials Course (WME).

At RBC Dominion Securities, Adam works closely with clients on all financial, wealth, and estate planning needs while managing daily operations. He takes pride in creating a full wealth planning experience for clients, taking the time to understand their personal values, goals, and specific needs to develop a retirement plan. Adam thoroughly constructs, analyzes, and monitors portfolios. Once a plan is in place, He continues working alongside clients to help them achieve their long-term financial goals to enjoy a successful retirement and leave a lasting legacy.

Growing up in North Bay instilled a deep love for the outdoors. Adam along with his wife and kids enjoy travel, fishing, boating and camping.
