

WIDDIFIELD FREE THE CHILDREN AND STUDENT CHEFS
KAYLEE DAMBRAUSKAS & JASMIND BONNEY PRESENT

THE 9TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL DINNER

1

HOMEMADE MANDAZI

Mandazi, also known as the Swahili Bun or Swahili Coconut Donut, is a form of fried bread that originated on the Swahili Coast.

Featured Countries: Tanzania, Kenya

2

SOUPE JOUMOU

Haitian pumpkin soup.
Featured Country: Haiti

3

MURGH KARI

Curried chicken served on basmati rice.
*Vegetarian option available.

Featured Country: India

4

PASTEL DE TRES LECHES

3 milk cake with lemon whip cream and toasted coconut.

Featured Country: Nicaragua

Kids Meal: Chicken fingers with french fries and ice cream for dessert

FIVE Pillars, ONE PURPOSE FTC ADOPT A VILLAGE PROGRAM

EDUCATION

CLEAN WATER

HEALTH

FOOD SECURITY

ALTERNATIVE INCOME

JOIN US TUESDAY, MAY 10 5:30 @ WIDDIFIELD TICKETS ADULTS $20
KIDS $10

For more information on Free the Children's Adopt a Village program, please visit freethechildren.com