nation's 150th birthday and for wearing outdoor shoes indoors. I then asked 6 questions from a handout about Canada moving around the room to six different tables. I then asked Linn Thain to put in order a top ten list of all time hockey legends. He failed on his first pick. (Bobby Orr not Wayne Gretzky is #1)

Paul Harris award - President Bruce congratulated Gord Fallen, Joe Fleming and Jim Stewart for their continued support of the Rotary Foundation.

Happy Bucks – Even after the fines were paid, Rotarians still had money and good reason to be happy. Bruce, Ken T, Susan M., Amy, Wendy, Linn, Peter E. & myself.

Announcements – Lyn Kimmett, along with Coralie Jacobs, officially kicked off The Carl Oake Swimathon, Joe McCulloch and the School Breakfast programme, Rick Storey a reminder and invitation to attend the Spelling 'B' meeting Tuesday. Bruce Gravel with a reminder about our Auction, Stan Pineau with more on the bike donation to the Prince of Wales school, Sally Harding asking Rotarians to step up and offer to host Lais, our Y/E student from Brazil. Ken Seims looking for curlers for a 'funspiel' on Feb. 18th. And last, Ken Tremblay asked that we let him know each member's volunteer hours in 2016. He/we need to have a benchmark to compare our volunteerism and 2016 will be it.

Programme: As is a tradition with our club, we begin the new year with updates from our three levels of government. First up was Mayor Daryl Bennett; introduced by a somewhat confused Art Turner. A fact filled report – see attachment -and many examples of how strong a position our city is in. There was also much levity mixed in with his factual assessments of various area of our city's successes. My President thanked him on behalf of the Club.

"Inside me there's a thin person struggling to get out, but I can usually sedate that person with 4 or 5 cupcakes." Bob Thaves

POTENTIAL NEW MEMBERS

If you are bringing a guest to Rotary, who may be interested in joining our club, please make sure you introduce this person to Martin Wormald or someone else on the Membership Committee. Martin or a committee member will look after talking to the guest and seeing them through the membership process. The Membership Committee has some information at the Holiday Inn that potential Rotarians can take away with them.
