

The Evening Examiner, Peterborough, Saturday, May 21, 1921

Wise and Otherwise

😊 Charlie Chaplin is reputed to receive a million a year for playing the fool. Many people about town are neglecting their opportunities.

😊 Europe is threatened with another war and they have not got all the barbed wire from the last one rolled up yet.

😊 Some young men won't need to worry about making their wives happy. Their wives will always have something amusing to laugh at, as long as their husbands are around.

😊 I love the smell of gasoline,
I love to tour afar,
And I'd don't care how much it costs,
In someone else's car.

😊 When it comes to attracting male attention, the magician who takes money out of a borrowed hat has nothing on the young lady who takes a roll out of her stocking.

😊 THE EVILS OF INTEMPERANCE

Two pints one quart,
Two quarts, one fight,
One fight, two cops,
Two cops, one judge,
One judge, thirty days.
—Syracuse Orange Peel

The Evening Examiner, Peterborough, Monday, April 11, 1921

Wise and Otherwise* column:

The new minister, unable to locate the post office, stopped a small boy and inquired the direction of him. "Go down two blocks and turn one block to your left," replied the urchin.

Thanking him, the minister asked whether he attended Sunday school, and received a negative answer. "Then my boy, come to my Sunday school next Sunday and I will show you the way to Heaven." promised the clergyman.

The boy meditated upon this. "Well," he finally asked, "how are you going to show me the way to Heaven when you don't know the way to the post office?"

From The Evening Examiner, Peterborough, Thursday, March 24, 1921

Wise and Otherwise:

New Traffic Code

Rule 1—Pedestrians crossing boulevards at night shall wear a white light in front and a red light in the rear.

Rule 2—Before turning to the right or the left, the pedestrian shall give three short blasts on a horn at least three inches in diameter.

Rule 3—When an inexperienced driver is made nervous by a pedestrian, he shall indicate the same and the pedestrian shall hide behind a tree until the automobile has passed.

Rule 4—Pedestrians shall not carry in their pockets any substances which, when broken, will be apt to cut automobile tires.

Rule 5—Pedestrians must register at the beginning of each year and pay a license fee of $5.00.