It is my desire to establish the following type of membership:

- General: Business: Domicile: Young Professional:

Following are the descriptions of the four types of memberships and the associated costs:

General Membership: Membership is for one individual with full Rotary Membership recognition.

Annual membership fee ¹ :	$210
Breakfast cost ² :	$16
Happy Bucks:	Self Determined

Business Membership: One individual from the business/corporation is named as the member. Up to 2 additional individuals can attend meetings at any given time for the annual membership. The individuals do not have to be the same 3 individuals each meeting. The individual named as a member receives a copy of "The Rotarian" magazine for the place of business and is recognized as a full member within Rotary International. All attendees pay the breakfast cost and Happy Bucks if they choose to participate in Happy Bucks.

Annual membership fee ¹ :	$500 (an annual savings of $130 over full individual membership)
Breakfast cost ² :	$16 per person
Happy Bucks:	Self Determined

Domicile Membership: Membership is for two individuals with full Rotary Membership recognition for two individuals residing at the same physical address. Examples would be husband and wife, father and son, mother and daughter, man or woman and partner. Both domiciled members are set up as full members. Each would receive a copy of "The Rotarian" magazine and recognized as full members within Rotary International. Each Member pays the breakfast cost and Happy Bucks if they choose to participate in Happy Bucks.

Annual membership fee ¹ :	$350 (an annual savings of $70 over full individual membership)
Breakfast cost ² :	$16 per person
Happy Bucks:	Self Determined

Young Professional Membership: Membership is for one individual with full Rotary Membership recognition. Membership for one individual who is currently between the ages of 18 and 25 OR a former student of the month. Member pays the breakfast cost and any Happy Bucks if they choose to participate in Happy Bucks.
