2. Land Acknowledgement – Collins

We begin this gathering by acknowledging the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabe peoples, many of whom continue to live and work here today. This territory is covered by the Upper Canada Treaties and is within the land protected by the Dish with One Spoon Wampum agreement. Today this gathering place is home to many First Nations, Metis and Inuit people and acknowledging reminds us that our great standard of living is directly related to the resources and friendship of Indigenous people

3. National Anthem – All

4. 4-WAY TEST –Dave

Of the things we think, say, or do
 Is it the truth?
 Is it fair to all concerned?
 Will it build good will and better friendships?
 Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

5.

Invocation- Paul A

Help us to bring our best efforts to what we can know.
 To love our friends and family.
 To treat our employees and fellow workers fairly.
 To seek justice.
 To help those in need. To be the best that we can be.
 And to live by the 4 Way Test.

7. Introducing Ryan Bradbury, our Outbound Youth Exchange student from 2023-2024! New Author! My neighbour across the street went off to King's College University, Nova Scotia this fall. He's brought his roommate and new friend, Finn, home for the school break.

Ryan. I wrote a book with my buddy Chad and I'm here to share experiences from my exchange year 2023/24. I felt pushed forward to show what an exchange year can do. In late January, I called Chad. 'We have so many stories, we should put them in a book.' I learned PERSEVERENCE! I thought it would take 2 months. It took 6. We sent out requests to YE that year in Belgium mainly. Of the 100 sent out, 58 responses came back. From 8 pm – 2am, every night, I was working on it. I got many pictures. In Apsley, at the library, I got CONNECTION-worked 6 hours a day and people bought it!

The book made it to #1 in Travel! Leaps of faith led to Unforgettable Moments! Next steps- Yukon? Pelham Library. Kings College Library. Knowing what I know now with my Journalism studies, I'd do it differently. I wrote a journal during that time -I could make ANOTHER book.

Mel. Re your present program, is it what you thought it would be? Ryan. If I can talk to people and get THEM talking, the course is doing what I want. For this book, I formatted many times!

Thank you, Ryan, for your spirit and courage.

Sarah, Ryan's sister is our next outgoing student.

Happy Loonies
